person guilty of the contempt to pay the party aggrieved a sum of money sufficient to indemnify him and satisfy his costs and expenses, which order, and the acceptance of money thereunder, shall be a bar to an action for such loss and injury. (4649) [8364]

May award reasonable attorney's fee (113-304, 129+583).

9804. Imprisonment until performance—Whenever the contempt consists in the omission to perform an act which is yet in the power of the person to perform, he may be imprisoned until he performs it, and in such case the act shall be specified in the warrant of commitment. (4650) [8365].

23-411, 56+397; 57+940; 63-443, 65+728.

Defendant, having admitted default, had the burden of excusing, and it is held, that he made such a showing of present inability to pay the amount of arrears that the court was not warranted in committing him. 161-122, 200+936.

9805. Proceedings by indictment—Persons proceeded against under this chapter are also liable to indictment for the same misconduct, if it is an indictable offense; but the court before which a conviction is had on the indictment, in passing sentence, shall take into consideration the punishment before inflicted. (4651) [8366]

WITNESSES

9808. Definition—A witness is a person whose declaration under oath is received as evidence for any purpose, whether such declaration is made on oral examination, or by deposition or affidavit. (4654) [8369] 56-33, 57+219.

9809. Subpoena, by whom issued—Every clerk of a court of record, and every justice of the peace, may issue subpoenas for witnesses in all civil cases pending before the court or justice, or before any magistrate, arbitrator, board, committee, or other person authorized to examine witnesses, and in all contests concerning lands before the register and receiver of any land office in this state. (4655) [8370] 30-140, 14+581; 50-239, 52+655. Cited (109-360, 123+1074). 131-116, 154+750.

9810. How served—Such subpoena may be served by any person, by exhibiting and reading it to the witness, or by giving him a copy thereof, or by leaving such copy with a person of suitable age and discretion at the place of his abode. (4656) [8371]

9811. Failure to attend—Damages—If any person duly subpoenaed to attend as a witness fails to do so, without reasonable excuse, he shall be liable to the aggrieved party, in a civil action, for all damages occasioned by such failure. (4657) [8372]

9812. Contempt—Such failure to attend as a witness is a contempt of court, and, if the subpoena issues out of a court of record, may be punished by a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in jail not exceeding six months, or both. (4658) [8373] 131-120, 164+750; 144-111, 174+618.

9813. Attachment—The court in such case may issue an attachment to bring such witness before it to answer for the contempt, and also to testify as a witness in the action or proceeding in which he was subpoenaed. (4659) [8374] 2-37, 26; 62-318, 64+821.

9814. Competency of witnesses—Every person of sufficient understanding, including a party, may testify in any action or proceeding, civil or criminal, in court or before any person who has authority to receive evidence, except as follows:

1. A husband cannot be examined for or against his wife without her consent, nor a wife for or against her husband without his consent, nor can either, during the marriage or afterwards, without the consent of the other, be examined as to any communication made by one to the other during the marriage. But this exception does not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other, nor to an action or proceeding for abandonment and neglect of the wife or children by the husband.

2. An attorney cannot, without the consent of his client, be examined as to any communication made by the client to him or his advice given thereon in the course of professional duty; nor can any employee of such attorney be examined as to such communication or advice, without the client's consent.

3. A clergyman or other minister of any religion shall not, without the consent of the party making the confession, be allowed to disclose a confession made to him in his professional character, in the course of discipline enjoined by the rules or practice of the religious body to which he belongs.

4. A licensed physician or surgeon shall not, without the consent of his patient, be allowed to disclose any information or any opinion based thereon which he acquired in attending the patient in a professional capacity and which was necessary to enable him to act in that capacity.

Provided that after the decease of such patient, in an action to recover insurance benefits, where the insurance has been in existence two years or more the beneficiaries shall be deemed to be the personal representatives of such deceased person for the purpose of waiving the privilege hereinbefore created, and that no oral or written waiver of the privilege hereinbefore created shall have any binding force or effect except that the same be made upon the trial of examination where the evidence is offered or received.

5. A public officer shall not be allowed to disclose communications made to him in official confidence when the public interest would suffer by the disclosure.

6. Persons of unsound mind; persons intoxicated at the time of their production for examination, and children under ten years of age, who appear incapable of receiving just impressions of the facts respecting which they are examined, or of relating them truly, are not competent witnesses. (R. L. '05 § 4660, G. S. '13 § 8375, amended as to subd. 4 by '19 c. 513 § 1)

See 153-39, 189+406.

Qualification of expert. 165-475, 194+14.

The mental impairment of a witness is for the consideration of the jury. 210+75.

The record sufficiently discloses the facts upon which a physician based his expert opinion. 210+996.

1. All persons not excepted competent—19-523, 454.

2. Parties competent—21-108.

3. Subd. 1—Statute excludes evidence of all private conversations between husband and wife though not confidential (35-310, 29+127; 61-78, 63+253). Fact that husband is dead does not alter rule (61-78, 63+253; 67-298, 69+923). Fact that wife refuses to allow adverse party to examine husband against her does not preclude her from subsequently calling him in her behalf (44-159, 46+295). When one spouse calls the other as witness the adverse party has right to cross-examination and such cross-examination is not limited to matters touched on in direct examination. Declarations of husband and wife subject to same rules of exclusion as those which govern their testimony as witnesses. The mere fact that one spouse does not call other as witness does not authorize court to instruct jury that they may take that fact into consideration as tending to raise a presumption that the testimony, if given, would not be favorable (77-282, 79+1016, 80+363; 91-204, 97+976). Wife not competent witness for state in prosecution against husband for crime against her committed before their marriage (76-526, 79+518). Wife cannot be witness against husband without his consent although action is one against person for enticing her away and defence is based on alleged ill-treatment of wife by husband (27-68, 64+25). Wife cannot testify against husband on prosecution against him for adultery (4-335, 251), but on prosecution against third party for having committed adultery with one of the spouses the other is competent to testify as to facts within his or her knowledge not gained through marital communications (57-225, 58+878). In actions against husband and wife under statute to have trust declared on fraudulent conveyance to wife husband is incompetent (30-496, 16+399; 77-282, 79+1016, 80+363; 88-253, 92+951). One spouse not incompetent witness to will simply because other spouse is a beneficiary under the will (56-33, 57+219, 22 L. R. A. 481). Dying declarations of wife admissible although husband was an accomplice (56-226, 57+652, 1065). Wife held not incompetent in action for alienation of her husband's affections, her testimony not relating to conversations between herself and her husband (67-476, 70+784). Error in examining husband against wife held waived by wife subsequently calling him as witness and examining him in relation to same matter (90-237, 95+903). Admissions against interest are admissible against the one making them, although the spouse of such person is a party to the action (119-265, 138+25). Error, if any, not prejudicial (101-451, 112+627; 111-339, 126+1089). Sufficiency of objection (118-255, 136+871). See also, 128-187, 150+793; 128-422, 151+190; 131-97, 154+735; 139-46, 165+864; 193+39; 293 Fed. 905.

4. Subd. 2.—Privilege belongs to client and not to attorney. Witness who has testified to given fact on direct examination may be compelled on cross-examination to state whether he has communicated the fact to his attorney (43-273, 45+449). Only communications made because of, and in the course of, confidential relation privileged. Mere request by one to an attorney to become and act as his attorney may be proved (29-124, 12+347). Conversation between parties to mortgage in hearing of attorney employed to draft mortgage, not embracing communications made to him as an attorney or for the purpose of obtaining his advice or legal opinion, not privileged (51-546, 53+871). Communications from client to attorney obviously designed for communication to adverse party or another not privileged (70-248, 73+644; 85-29, 88+254, 88+412). Attorney not obliged to produce writing intrusted to him by client, or to disclose its contents, without client's consent, but for purpose of authorizing adverse party to give oral evidence of its contents may be required to state whether he has it in his possession or not (40-545, 42+482; 70-37, 72+823). Privilege does not extend to facts or writings obtained by attorney from other sources than his client or from third parties, whether strangers or opponents (70-37, 72+823). If client attacks attorney he waives the privilege so far as to authorize the attorney to make a defence (66-10, 68+179). For certain purposes the legal adviser of a testator may disclose communications with his client on business matters (40-371, 42+286; 82-460, 85+217). Termination of relation of attorney and client does not authorize attorney to disclose communications made during existence of relation (75-366, 77+987). Relation of attorney and client does not exist between county attorney and one making complaint for purpose of criminal prosecution (74-93, 76+962). Communications made in furtherance of a criminal purpose not privileged (94-496, 103+497). Whether person waives privilege as to communications made to attorney in relation to a crime by subsequently confessing and testifying in relation to the crime is an open question (91-143, 97+652). Communications to clerk of attorney privileged, if in course of professional duties (104-432, 116+933).

The privilege from disclosing communications to an attorney is that of the client, and cannot be asserted by the state calling the client as its witness. 161-132, 201+297.

Testimony as to a statement made by a witness to an attorney was properly excluded as a communication between client and attorney. 157-53, 208+805.

5. Subd. 4—19-523, 454; 66-91, 68+731; 90-264, 95+1118; 94-496, 103+497. Is for protection of patient, and he may waive it, and as a rule those who represent him after his death may (100-117, 110+374; 103-290, 115+651, 946). What constitutes waiver (101-122, 111+951; 104-432, 116+933; 105-1, 116+917). See 123-173, 143+322; 123-468, 143+1133; 124-466, 145+385; 126-275, 148+117; 128-360, 150+1091; 131-209, 154+960.

It is plain that what that she disclosed to her physician when she consulted him for treatment for some ailment and what he learned by a physical examination of her was privileged. But a request that the doctor perform a criminal operation was not. 156-52, 194+752.

The statute forbids a physician from disclosing, without the consent of his patient, information acquired in his professional capacity and necessary to enable him to act in that capacity. 159-410, 199+87.

Plaintiff did not waive this privilege by bringing an action to recover for injuries, and testifying at the trial as to the injuries and that a broken bone in his leg had been set and the leg placed in a cast by the physician. 159-410, 199+87.

The plaintiff received medical attention from a physician. Another physician was present, and at the request of the attending physician participated in the examination of the plaintiff. It is held that the information acquired by the latter physician was privileged within the statute. 161-304, 201+551.

6. Subd. 5—74-93, 76+962; 139-47, 165+864.

7. Subd. 6—27-435, 8+164; 152-89, 187+972.

9815. Accused—The defendant in the trial of an indictment, complaint, or other criminal proceeding shall, at his own request and not otherwise, be allowed to testify; but his failure to testify shall not create any presumption against him, nor shall it be alluded to by the prosecuting attorney or by the court. (4661) [8376]

1. In general.

When defendant neglects or refuses to testify in his own behalf the court has no right to allude to or comment on the subject before the jury or to instruct them as to whether they shall consider such neglect or refusal in any manner whatever. In other words, the court must maintain absolute silence on the subject (56-226, 57+652, 57+1065), and so must county attorney (65-230, 68+11; 89-205, 94+675. See 95-467, 104+295). Error in this regard held not fatal where guilt of accused conclusively proved (54-195, 55+959). If defendant takes the stand his failure to explain or contradict evidence of conduct or admissions tending to criminate him may be properly commented on before the jury and may be considered by them with reference to his credibility (14-105, 75, 34-361, 25+793). While the court should not single out the defendant and charge particularly as to his credibility it has been held permissible to charge the jury that they may take into consideration the interest of the defendant in the result of the action (41-60, 42+697; 69-508, 72+799; 83-286, 86+98; 90-183, 96+330). Not applicable to bastardy proceedings (29-132, 12+347), or proceedings against officer of court for contempt (87-161, 91+297). Cited (14-35, 27). See 126-45, 147+822; 128-422, 151+190; 129-402, 152+769; 130-84, 153+271; 135-159, 160+677; 143-314, 173+718; 149-309, 181+947.

167-216, 208+761.

2. Cross-examination of accused.

A defendant taking the witness stand may be asked, on cross-examination, if he has been previously convicted of crime. 159-455, 199+99.

By referring in his testimony to other fires about which he had been questioned by the officers, defendant gave the state the privilege of cross-examining him on that subject, and the privilege was not abused to defendant's prejudice. 164-110, 204+564.

Where a defendant in a criminal prosecution is a witness in his own behalf, he thereby waives his privilege, and may be cross-examined concerning any matters pertinent to the issue, even if tending to show the commission of another crime. 211+305.

3. Unsworn statements in court.

The defendant in a criminal case who, though not sworn as a witness, vouches openly and with testimonial effect for the authenticity of a document admitted in evidence, cannot complain if the prosecutor, in discussing such evidence, suggests that the defendant in question was not sworn at any time during the trial, 163-109, 203+596.

4. Property taken without search warrant.

The fact that articles offered in evidence in a criminal prosecution against the owner thereof were taken by officers of the law, without a search warrant, from the house where the accused had resided but which he had abandoned when he fled to another state to avoid the consequences of the crime with which he was charged, does not render such articles inadmissible as evidence. 156-186, 194+396.

5. Search on lawful arrest.

A person lawfully arrested may, as an incident thereto, be searched, and incriminating articles found in his possession may be seized. 157-145, 195+789.

9816. Examination by adverse party—A party to the record of any civil action or proceeding, or a person for whose immediate benefit such action or proceeding is prosecuted or defended, or the directors, officers, superintendent, or managing agents of any corporation which is a party to the record, may be examined by the adverse party as if under cross-examination, subject to the rules applicable to the examination of other witnesses. The party calling such adverse witness shall not be bound by his testimony, and the testimony given by such witness may be rebutted by the party calling him for such examination by other evidence. Such witness, when so called, may be examined by his own counsel, but only as to the matters testified to on such examination. (4662) [8377]

1. Object and effect of statute—The object of the statute is to permit a party to call his adversary at the trial, without making him his own witness, and elicit from him, if possible, material facts within his knowledge by a cross-examination precisely as if he had already been examined on his own behalf in chief (38-112, 35+726; 64-444, 67+67). It was not intended to permit a plaintiff to make one of his own witnesses a nominal party to the record and then call and cross-examine him, not as an adverse party, but as a witness against the actual adverse party (64-444, 67-67). It was not designed to affect the competency of witnesses (44-159, 46-295; 77-282, 79+1016, 80+363; 90-237, 95+903), or the order of trial, or the rule which forbids a party to make out his case by cross-examining the witnesses of the adverse party (47-451, 50+598). Cited (103-176, 114-750).

Statute is applicable to procedure in federal court. 15 F (2d) 306.

The proponent of the second will, who was named as executrix, and was a beneficiary, and who actively engaged in sustaining it and opposing the 1911 will, in which she was also named executrix and was a beneficiary, was subject to cross-examination under the statute, Gen. St. 1913, § 8377, as an adverse party. 156-144, 194+330.

There was no error in calling the defendant Jansen for cross-examination under the statute, the effect of his admission was properly limited, and there were no reversible rulings on evidence. 163-187, 203+782.

There is no right to call a witness for cross-examination simply because he was an officer of the adverse party at the time of the transaction. 211+163.

2. Who may be called—A mere nominal party cannot be called. There must be a real issue to be tried between the party calling and the party called. A party cannot make one of his own witnesses a nominal party and then call him under the statute (50-525, 52+926; 64-444, 67-67; 69-472, 72+710; 81-263, 83+991; 83-346, 86+344; 87-362, 92+1). A person for whose immediate benefit the action is brought or defended may be called (81-263, 83+991; 82-416, 85+159). Whether an agent may be called after the termination of his agency is an open question (88-401, 93+307). Any officer, superintendent or agent of a corporation having supervision or control of the work or act of the corporation involved in the case may be called whether he is a general or subordinate officer (77-198, 79+682). See 94-331, 102+728). A stockholder of a corporation held properly called under the pleadings (94-331, 102+728). Master of vessel owned by corporation, with authority to direct its movements between ports, may be called in suit against corporation growing out of navigation of vessel (142 Fed. 315, 73 C. C. A. 425). Ruling allowing plaintiff to examine defendant in default, held error without prejudice (107-9, 119+247). Whether officer of municipality which is a party is within section, not decided (110-340, 125+507).

3. In what actions or proceedings—38-112, 35+726; 81-346, 84+46.

4. Scope of examination—The widest and freest scope is to be given the examination. Leading questions may be put and any admissible evidence which would tend to weaken the case of the witness or strengthen that of the party calling him may be drawn out. The whole case in all its phases may be thoroughly and minutely investigated. Objections on the ground of materiality are disfavored (38-112, 35+726; 63-504, 65+946; 66-223, 68+1072).

5. Contradiction and impeachment of witness—50-96, 52+277; 66-223, 68+1072; 87-362, 92+1.

6. Order of examination—The time when a party examined under the statute shall be examined by his own counsel is discretionary with the trial court (79-396, 82+651; 92-312, 99+1128; 93-179, 103+877).

7. Deposition—Whether the statute is applicable to the deposition of a party is an open question (63-504, 65+946).

8. Construction of statute—64-444, 67-67; 77-198, 79+682; 81-346, 84+46.

9. Error without prejudice—Where court incorrectly rules witness to be subject to cross-examination as adverse party, it is necessary to predicate reversible error, to show that one has been thereby prejudiced in the subsequent events of the trial (107-9, 119+247; 110-82, 124+637; 110-340, 125+507). See generally, 122-23, 141+810; 123-476, 144+154; 124-284, 144+956; 126-298, 148+276; 126-239, 148+102, 128-324, 156+263; 131-157, 154+954; 132-404, 157+643; 136-316, 162+298; 136-408, 162+515; 137-252, 163+297; 144-326, 175+908; 147-310, 180+218, 194+330.

9817. Conversation with deceased or insane person—It shall not be competent for any party to an action, or any person interested in the event thereof, to give evidence therein of or concerning any conversation with, or admission of, a deceased or insane party or person relative to any matter at issue between the parties, unless the testimony of such deceased or insane person concerning such conversation or admission, given before his death or insanity, has been preserved, and can be produced in evidence by the opposite party, and then only in respect to the conversation or admission to which such testimony relates. (4663) [8378]

1. Who incompetent—Every party to the action is incompetent, however remote or contingent his interest may be (70-312, 73+180). On the other hand to render a person not a party incompetent on the ground that he is interested in the event of the action he must have some pecuniary, legal, certain and immediate interest in the event of the cause itself, or in the record as an instrument of evidence for or against himself, and the burden is on the party objecting to the witness to make his incompetency appear clearly (22-397; 26-391, 4+685; 36-200, 30+671; 37-256, 33+785; 39-546, 40+842; 40-152, 41+547; 45-64, 47+314; 48-82, 50+1022; 54-99, 55+817; 60-457, 62+815; 66-483, 69+619; 67-298, 69+923; 69-37, 71+824; 70-312, 73+180; 71-276, 73+962; 73-21, 75+732; 87-417, 92+337; 116-358, 133+977). The disqualification does not extend to all parties to the record but only to such as are parties to the specific issue to which the testimony relates (54-99, 55+817; 64-444, 67+67). The disqualification does not apply to an agent of a party to the action if such agent is not himself a party and not interested in the event of the action (45-64, 47+314). A party or interested person is disqualified although he took no part in the conversation (76-396, 79+300). Applicable where representative of deceased person relies on conversation (96-499, 105+673). On garnishee's disclosure judgment debtor is person interested and prohibited from testifying on behalf of executor for benefit of estate concerning conversations of debtor with testator (96-499, 105+673). Cf. 100-117, 110+374). Executor is competent, though he petitions for probate, to testify as to execution of will, including what testator said relevant thereto (103-286, 114+838). See, also, 117-247, 135+980). Legatee held not prohibited from testifying in support of gift, where it was not only against her interest so to testify, but she had no direct interest in result of controversy adverse to estate (108-109, 121+609). Evidence held not inadmissible, as relating to transactions with decedent (107-29, 119+385). Court did not err in permitting plaintiff to testify to conversations with deceased defendant, who had testified as to them on former trial and whose testimony had been preserved (99-457, 109+995). Competency of stockholder acting as manager to testify to conversations with deceased employe in suit against corporation for wrongfully causing employe's death (111-105, 126+534).

Employee of defendant bank could testify to conversation with deceased attorney in fact for plaintiff. 15 F (2d) 306.

1a. Officer of corporation.

An officer of plaintiff, a congregation owning a cemetery, had not such an interest in the result of this suit, involving the removal of a corpse buried in the cemetery, that he is precluded from testifying therein as to conversations with a deceased person upon an issue in the suit. 159-331, 199+81.

1b. Heirs.

This statute does not prevent an heir interested in the estate from giving evidence of family history and reputation or tradition, or of declarations of a deceased member of the family, tending to show illegitimacy of one claiming to be an heir. 160-463, 209+742.

1c. Conversations between deceased and third persons.

Under the statute the plaintiff could not testify as to conversations with or admissions of her deceased father. The statute cannot be evaded by indirection. It was error to permit her to testify that she heard the conversation between her husband and the deceased to which he had testified. In doing so she in effect testified that such conversations were had 161-396, 202+53.

1d. Testimony of payment to deceased.

Testimony that a payment was made to a person since deceased does not violate the rule barring testimony as to conversations with such person. 166-153, 207+311.

1e. Effect of deposition of deceased.

The father being dead the statute prohibited plaintiff from testifying to an oral contract, and the fact that the father's deposition had been taken, but at a time when he was not competent to testify, did not remove the bar of the statute. 210+284.

2. Effect of conversation—The statute cannot be evaded by allowing a witness to testify as to the effect of a conversation with a deceased person or as to an inference from such conversation (42-163, 44+525; 69-37, 71+824; 80-419, 83+379; 84-263, 87+781; 69-199, 71+913; 83-218, 92+962; 88-257, 92+965; 109-372, 123+1070). Nor is it permissible for a witness to testify as to what was not said in such a conversation (44-355, 46+563).

3. Written admissions and acts—The statute does not forbid evidence of written admissions or acts, either of the deceased or the surviving party (26-28, 1+55). Thus a survivor has been allowed to testify as to the fact of a payment (26-28, 1+55; 80-419, 83+379; 84-263, 87+781); the consideration of a note and mortgage (51-523, 53+754); the angry exclamation of a testator, his sanity being at issue (38-112, 35+726); the fact that the surviving witness got a letter from the postoffice, read it to the deceased and gave it to him (47-85, 49+524); as to an indebtedness of the witness to the deceased person at the time of making a payment to him (95-315, 104+135). Evidence may be given as to letters of a deceased person (35-55, 27+74; 46-33, 48+450; 66-327, 69+31). The statute does not forbid evidence of a fact within the knowledge of the witness irrespective of any conversation with the deceased (95-315, 104+135 and see 118-307, 136+850). Held "conversations" and not "acts" (91-137, 97+580).

4. Conversations with whom—The word "person" as used in the statute is not limited to parties, but includes all persons whatsoever (32-436, 21+475; 40-152, 41+547; 83-206, 86+11). Prohibition extends to conversations or admissions of deceased party with or to third person in presence of party testifying (97-491, 106+958).

5. Waiving objection by cross-examination—45-483, 48+328; 57-282, 59+193; 60-457, 62+815; 75-396, 78+101.

6. Objection to evidence must be specific—42-2T2, 44+193.

7. Waiver—Proof by plaintiff, an executor, of an admission by defendant of a liability in favor of the estate does not waive the statute so as to enable defendant to testify as to conversations with or admissions by the deceased party (36-392, 32+86).

8. When witness called by adverse party—It is an open question whether the statute is applicable when the witness is called to give evidence against his interest (61-78, 63+253).

9. Statute strictly construed—26-28, 1+55; 38-112, 35+726; 73-21, 75+732.

10. Effect on competency of witness generally—The effect of the statute is not to render the surviving party an incompetent witness generally, but only as to conversations with or admissions of the deceased party (36-200, 30+671; 36-392, 32+86).

11. Applies only to issues—The statute has no application to conversations which do not bear on the issues (38-112, 35+726).

12. History of legislation—26-28, 1+55; 32-436, 21+475.

13. Cases under former statutes—8-351, 310; 12-407, 291; 18-527, 471; 21-108; 22-397. See, also, 121-354, 141+481; 124-336, 145+116; 126-58, 14+714; 127-215, 149+292; 128-21, 150+213; 128-281, 150+914; 132-255, 156+263; 133-136, 157+1073; 136-409, 162+515; 137-92, 162+1070; 137-420, 163+771; 138-6, 163+756; 138-62, 163+385; 139-46, 165+864; 141-255, 169+797; 141-332, 170+210; 142-1, 170+699; 143-328, 173+665; 144-111, 174+617; 147-190, 179+895; 148-109, 180+1006; 191+430, 193+39.

9818. Peculiar modes of swearing—Whenever the court before which any person is offered as a witness is satisfied that such person has a peculiar mode of swearing which is more solemn and obligatory, in the opinion of such person, than the usual mode, the court in its discretion may adopt such mode; and every person believing in any other than the Christian religion shall be sworn according to the peculiar ceremonies of his religion, if any there are. (4664) [8379]

Adoption of form of oath administered under laws of foreign country (108-441, 122+321). 146-374, 178+895. 167-216, 208+761.

9819. Capacity of witness, etc.—When an infant, or a person apparently of weak intellect, is produced as a witness, the court may examine him to ascertain his capacity, and whether he understands the nature and obligations of an oath, and the court may inquire of any person what peculiar ceremonies he deems most obligatory in taking an oath. (4665) [8380]

23-104, 27-435, 8+164; 76-351, 79+310.

DEPOSITIONS

1. Is within the state and lives more than thirty miles from the place of trial or hearing; or is about to go out of the state, not intending to return in time for the trial or hearing; or is so sick, infirm, or aged as to make it probable that he will not be able to attend at the trial or hearing;

2. Is without this state, and within any state or territory of the United States. (4666) [8381]

Party offering deposition must prove existence of statutory grounds (43-375, 45+713; 56-472, 58+39; 57-356, 59+316; 75-391, 77-952). Cited (109-113, 122+1117).

There was no error in the instructions or in the rulings on the admission of evidence. 165-186, 206+162.

9821. Service—Order—Defendant in default—Such notice shall be in writing, shall state the reason for taking the deposition, and shall be served in the same manner as other notices in civil actions, and so as to allow the adverse party sufficient time, at the rate of one day for every one hundred miles of distance by the usual route of travel between the place of service and the place of taking the deposition, and one day for preparation, exclusive of Sundays and the day of service: Provided, that a justice of the peace before whom, or a judge of the court before which, or a court commissioner of the county in which, the action is pending, on motion, may, by order, designate the time and place of taking the testimony and the time within which a copy of the order shall be served on the adverse party; but no notice or order need be served upon a defendant who is in default for want of an answer or other defense. (4667) [8382]

9822. Examination of witness—The examination shall commence at the time and place specified in the notice or order, or within one hour thereafter, and, if so stated in the notice, may be adjourned from day to day until closed. Either party may appear in person, or by his agent or attorney, and take part in the examination. (4668) [8383]

9823. Under commission—The deposition of a witness without the state may be taken under a commission issued by a court of record to any competent person in any state or country in the following cases:

1. When an issue of fact has been joined in an action pending in such court, or when a controversy has been submitted to arbitrators and the award is required to be filed in such court, on the application of either party made upon eight days' notice, if it appears that the testimony of such witness is material.

2. When the time for answering the complaint in an action pending in such court has expired, and the defendant has not answered or demurred, on application of the plaintiff without notice to the other party, if it appears that the testimony of such witness is necessary to establish the cause of action alleged. (4669) [8384]

Neither party has a right to be present or to have anyone present for him, unless by consent, at the execution of the commission (4-253, 178). The testimony of a party to the action may be taken (1-298, 231; 3-287, 197; 7-74, 50). When a commission names several commissioners the return must show that all were present or notified of the time and place of executing it (4-239, 169). The certificate should state directly that the witnesses were sworn before the commissioner, but this may be inferred from the whole certificate (5-201, 160). Where the same commissioner takes several depositions under one commission it is not necessary to attach a certificate to each deposition (14-273, 203). When, in a commission to take testimony, an interrogatory is to be put if a previous question is answered in a particular way, and the question is not answered in that way, the interrogatory ought not to be put, and if put the answer ought not to be admitted (3-166, 108). Rules of court respecting the taking and return of depositions must be followed (4-239, 169; 11-331, 234), but a substantial compliance is generally sufficient (3-287, 197; 5-201, 160). Interrogatories and cross-interrogatories cannot be added to or diminished at the time of taking the deposition (4-253, 178). Holding case open to enable party to obtain evidence of a witness in a foreign country under a commission (81-245, 83+986).

9824. Interrogatories—When such application is by the plaintiff, and there has been no appearance by the defendant, the deposition may be taken upon interrogatories filed by the plaintiff and annexed to the commission. In all other cases such depositions shall be taken upon written interrogatories, served upon the adverse party or his attorney, and cross-interrogatories to be served and filed by him if he desires. (4670) [8385]

9825. By stipulation—The parties to any action or proceeding, by stipulation in writing, may agree upon any other mode of taking depositions, either within or without the state, and, when taken pursuant to such stipulation, they may be used upon a trial with like force and effect in all respects as if taken upon notice or under commission. (4671) [8386]

9826. Deposition, how written—In all cases the deposition shall be written by the officer, or by some disinterested person in his presence and under his direction. The officer must carefully read over to the witness his testimony, and he may thereupon add thereto or qualify the same as he may desire. (4672) [8387]

9827. Signing and certifying—When the deposition is completed, the witness shall sign his name or make his mark at the end thereof, as well as upon each piece of paper upon which any portion of his testimony is written. Thereupon the officer shall annex to such deposition the notice, order, or the commission, and a certificate, under his hand and his official seal, if he have one, which certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the matters therein stated, and shall be substantially in the following form:

State of)
County of) ss.

Be it known that I took the annexed depositions pursuant to the annexed notice (or order or commission); that I was then and there (state title of officer); that I exercised the power of that office in taking such deposition; that by virtue thereof I was then and there authorized to administer an oath; that each witness, before testifying, was duly sworn to testify to the whole truth and nothing but the truth relative to the cause specified in said notice (or order or commission); that the testimony of each witness was carefully read over to him by me before he signed the same (if the examination was oral); that the examination was conducted on behalf of the plaintiff by, and on behalf of the defendant by; and (if the deposition was taken within the state) that the reason for taking said deposition was (here state the reason).

Witness my hand (and seal) this day of, 19....

80-408, 83+398.

9829. Person giving deposition to be sworn—Every person whose testimony is taken by deposition, before being examined or giving his evidence, shall be sworn to testify the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, relative to the cause in or for which the deposition is taken. (4675) [8390]

A party is not bound to introduce a deposition (10-350, 277). A deposition taken at the instance of one party and not used by him may be introduced by the adverse party (12-255, 166; 34-436, 26+234; 42-386, 44+129). Where the party at whose instance a deposition is taken has used the answers to the direct interrogatories, he may, if the opposite party declines to do so, use the answers to the cross-interrogatories (12-255, 166). A party offering evidence taken by deposition is not obliged to offer or to read the whole deposition (76-358, 79+308). A deposition taken at the instance of one of two interveners held admissible in favor of the other (42-323, 44+194). That an interrogatory and answer are excluded for any sufficient reason, is, as a general rule, no ground for excluding the whole deposition (12-255, 166; 20-277, 249). Where an answer in a deposition is in part proper and in part improper a party objecting must limit his objection to the part which is improper (14-273, 203). A party held precluded from raising certain objections (68-170, 70+979). Objection that a deed with reference to which the testimony was given was not exhibited to the witness at the time of giving his testimony (78-373, 81+11). Answers to interrogatories must be full, frank, explicit and responsive and if they are not their admission may be objected to on the trial (12-255, 166; 12-357, 232; 20-277, 249; 32-243, 20+149). At common law depositions could not be received in evidence and can only be admitted by virtue of the statute or of a stipulation when all the requirements of the same are complied with. Courts exercise caution in admitting them (4-253, 178; 10-350, 277; 75-391, 77+952). Objection to deposition, that necessity for taking it is not shown to exist when offered, if not made before read in evidence, is waived (98-261, 108+11).

Defects of a purely formal nature which could not have misled or prejudiced the adverse party are not a ground for suppressing a deposition or for excluding it at the trial (27-530, 8+765; 36-243, 31+211; 40-178, 41+939; 67-37, 69+622; 104-163, 116+356). The omission of the official seal to the certificate of the authentication of a deposition taken before a notary in another state is an informality merely and not sufficient ground to warrant the rejection of the deposition on the trial although no notice of the return was served (49-235, 51+920. See 29-264, 13+45). The effect of the failure to give notice of the return is not to render the deposition inadmissible but simply to leave the adverse party at liberty to make at the trial any objections that he could have made on a motion to suppress (35-476, 29+171; 36-243.

31+211; 40-148, 41+939). Where the time elapsing between notice of the filing of a deposition and the trial is less than ten days so that the adverse party has not the statutory time within which to move to suppress before trial the effect is not to render the deposition inadmissible, but to leave the adverse party in the same position as if no notice had been given; that is to say, he may make at the trial all objections that he could have made on a motion to suppress (35-476, 29+171). The following objections must be made by a motion to suppress if an opportunity is given and cannot be raised on the trial; that the depositions contain the testimony of witnesses not named in notice (45-13, 47+259); that the name of a witness was not properly given in the notice (33-87, 22+4); that the notice was not signed by the firm name of attorneys appearing for the party taking the deposition (36-243, 31+211); that the deposition was written out in the third person (81-91, 83+467). Where a party is represented at the taking of a deposition and cross-examines the witness without any objection to the manner of taking the deposition he waives the objection that it was taken in a narrative form (95-57, 103+621). See 128-525, 151+416.

Omission of notice to state that witness' residence was outside state as reason for taking deposition was defect of form and cured by Gen. St. 1913, § 8393, regardless of section 8395. 162-57, 202+54.

9833. Failure of party giving notice to appear—Expenses—Whenever any party serving notice of the taking of the testimony of any person fails to appear and proceed with the taking of such testimony at the time and place stated in the notice or order, and the adverse party shall appear in pursuance thereof, by himself or attorney, the court in which the cause is pending shall allow said adverse party such sum for expenses and attorney's fees incurred in so attending as it shall deem proper, which shall be collected in the same manner as other disbursements in the cause. (4679) [8394]

9834. Deposition, not used when—No deposition shall be used if it appears that the reason for taking it no longer exists; but, if the party producing the deposition in such case shows sufficient cause then existing for using the same, it may be admitted. (4680) [8395]

Omission of notice to state that witness residence was outside state as reason for taking deposition was defect of form and cured by Gen. St. 1913, § 8393, regardless of section 8395. 162-57, 202+54.

9835. Deposition used in second action—When an action is discontinued or dismissed, and another action for the same cause is afterward commenced between the same parties or their respective representatives, all depositions lawfully taken for the first action may be used in the second in the same manner and subject to the same conditions and objections as if originally taken therefor: Provided, that the deposition has been duly filed in the court where the first action was pending, and has ever since remained in its custody. (4681) [8396]

Admissibility on second trial depends on identity of matters in issue and opportunity of party against whom offered to cross-examine the witness rather than on mutuality between parties (42-323, 44+194; 76-358, 79+308. See 10-350, 277). Order of court unnecessary (2-118, 95). Deposition of a witness since deceased may be used on the second trial although after it was taken, and on the first trial, he was sworn and examined as a witness (18-506, 455). Statute followed in federal courts (16 Fed. 435).

9836. Deposition on appeal—When an action is appealed from one court to another, all depositions lawfully taken to be used in the court below may be used in the appellate court in the same manner and subject to the same objections as were made to such depositions in writing in the court below. (4682) [8397]

9837. Depositions for use in other states—Any witness may be compelled, in the manner and under the penalties prescribed in this chapter, to give his deposition in any case pending in a court of any other state or country, which deposition may be taken before any justice of the peace or notary public, or before any commissioner appointed under the authority of the state or country in which the action is pending; and the clerk of any district court of this state may issue subpoenas to such witnesses to appear before the person taking such deposition. (4683) [8398]

9838. Affidavits, etc., taken out of state—All oaths and affidavits taken out of the state before any officer authorized to administer oaths, and certified by the clerk of a court of record, may be used and read upon the argument of any motion, with the same effect as if taken within this state: Provided, that if such affidavit be taken before a notary public or commissioner for this state, the clerk's certificate shall not be required. (4684) [8399]

PERPETUATION OF TESTIMONY

9839. Within the state—Application, how made—Any person who desires to perpetuate the testimony of any witness within the state shall make a statement in writing, setting forth briefly and substantially his title, claim, or interest in the subject concerning which he desires to perpetuate the evidence, and the names of all other persons interested or supposed to be interested, their residences, if known, and, if unknown, it shall be so stated, and the name of the witness proposed to be examined, and shall deliver such statement to the judge of the district court, and request him to take the deposition of such witness. (4685) [8400]

75-391, 77+952.

9840. Order and notice—The judge shall make an order fixing the time and place of taking such deposition, which order shall be served upon all persons mentioned in the statement as being interested in the case, in the same manner as notices of the taking of other depositions within the state are required to be served, and so as to allow the same time for appearance. But if it appear that, by reason of the non-residence of any such person or other cause, it is impossible to serve such order in the manner aforesaid, the judge may direct that three weeks' published notice thereof be given. (4686) [8401]

9843. When and how used—Such deposition, when so recorded, or the record thereof, or a certified copy of such record, may be used, in any action or proceeding wherein the title, claim, or interest set forth in the statement under which it was taken is brought in question, by the applicant or any person notified of the taking thereof, or by any person claiming under either or any of them, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if it had been taken for such action. (4689) [8404]

9844. Witness compelled to testify—Any witness may be subpoenaed and compelled to give his deposition in such cases, in like manner, and under the same penalties, as are provided in respect to other depositions taken in this state. (4690) [8405]

9845. Witnesses without the state—Depositions to perpetuate the testimony of witnesses without the state may be taken in any state or foreign country upon a commission issued by any court of record, as herein-after provided. (4691) [8406]

9847. Notice of application—The judge shall order notice of such application and statement to be served on all the persons named therein at least fourteen days before the time appointed for hearing the parties: Provided, that if any of said persons reside out of the state, or if their residence is unknown to the applicant, the judge shall order such service to be made upon such persons by three weeks' published notice. (4693) [8408]

9848. Commission, when to issue—If, upon hearing the parties who appear, the court shall find that there is sufficient cause for taking the deposition, it shall issue a commission therefor in like manner as for taking a deposition to be used in a cause pending in such court. (4694) [8409]

9849. Deposition, how taken and returned—The deposition shall be taken upon written interrogatories filed by the applicant, and cross-interrogatories, if any are filed by any party adversely interested; and it shall be taken, certified, and returned substantially in the same manner as in the case of a deposition taken upon interrogatories to be used in a cause pending in the same court. (4695) [8410]

9850. Deposition, how recorded and used—Within ninety days after the return of such deposition, the judge or clerk shall file it for record with the register of deeds, and it may thereafter be used in evidence, as in the case of such deposition taken within the state. (4696) [8411]

JUDICIAL RECORDS—STATUTES, ETC.

19-239, 198; 20-234, 212; 55-401, 56+1056; 96-219, 104+555; 15 Fed. 689.

Judgment of municipal court of another state was properly proved by certified copy. 210+15.

In an action on a judgment rendered in another state, the evidence sustains the finding that the defendant here was the defendant there, and was served with process. 210+15.

The defendant's proffered proof did not show a right of counterclaim for the recovery of the amount of the note for the recovery of interest on which the judgment in suit was rendered. 210+15.

A person who professes knowledge of the laws of a foreign country may testify as to their tenor and effect, although not a lawyer or learned in the law of such country. 163-176, 203+778.

9853. Printed copies of statutes, etc.—Printed copies of all statutes, acts, and resolutions of this state published under its authority, whether of a public or private nature, the journals of the senate and house of representatives kept by the respective clerks thereof as provided by law, and deposited in the office of the secretary of state, and the printed journals of said houses, respectively, published by authority of law, shall be admitted as sufficient evidence thereof in all cases whatsoever. (4699) [8414]

See 130-424, 153+749.

9854. Municipal ordinances, etc.—Copies of the ordinances, by-laws, resolutions, and regulations of any city, village, or borough, certified by the mayor, or president of the council, and the clerk thereof, under its seal, and copies of the same printed in any newspaper, book, pamphlet, or other form, and which purport to be published by authority of the council of such city or village, shall be prima facie evidence thereof, and, after three years from the compilation and publication of any such book or pamphlet, shall be conclusive proof of the regularity of their adoption and publication. (4700) [8415]

68-341, 351, 71+257.

9855. Statutes of other states—Printed copies of the statute laws of any other state, or of a foreign country, which purport to be published under the authority of their respective governments, or if commonly admitted as evidence in their courts, are admissible as prima facie evidence of such laws in all cases whatsoever in this state. (4701) [8416]

4-335, 251; 86-33, 90+7.

9856. Common law of other states—The unwritten or common law of any other state may be proved as a fact by parol evidence, and the books of reports of cases adjudged in the courts of such states may also be admitted as evidence of such law. (4702) [8417]

32-9, 84+458; 84-170, 87+606.

9858. Copies of decisions, etc., certified by librarian—Copies of judicial decisions contained in any of the law or equity reports in the state library, and of any other papers or documents contained in such library, certified by the state librarian, shall be received in evidence in like manner and with like effect as the originals. For making and certifying any such copy, the librarian shall be entitled to charge fifteen cents a folio. (4704) [8419]

DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE

9859. Affidavit of publication—When notice of any application to a court or judicial officer is required by law to be published in a newspaper, an affidavit by the printer of such paper, or his foreman or clerk, annexed to a printed copy of such notice taken from the paper in which it was published, specifying the times when, and the paper in which, such notice was published, may be filed with the proper officer of the court, or with the judicial officer before whom such proceeding is pending, at any time within six months after the last day of the publication of such notice, unless sooner specially required. And a like affidavit of such printer, foreman, or clerk, may within the same time be filed for record with the register of deeds of the county where any real estate affected by such notice is situated. (4705) [8420]

18-66, 51; 18-366, 335. See '17 c. 455 and '19 c. 155 Cur.

9860. Printer's affidavit, when evidence—The original affidavit of the printer of any newspaper, or of his foreman or clerk, of the publication of any summons, notice, order, resolution, or other advertisement which by law is required or authorized to be published in such newspaper, and copies of the same, or of the record thereof, certified by the officer in whose custody the same may be, shall be prima facie evidence of such publication and of the facts stated therein. And if any such publication relates to the sale of real estate, such affidavit may be filed for record with the register of deeds of the county in which the real estate lies. (4706) [8421]

See '21 c. 168 Cur.

Explanatory note—Minnesota Historical Society as custodian of certain records and copies of such records as evidence see supra, §§ 8008-1, 8008-2.

9862. Official records prima facie evidence—Certified copies—Certified copies of decrees of probate courts—The original record made by any public officer in the performance of his official duty shall be prima facie evidence of the facts required or permitted by law to be by him recorded. A copy of such record, or of any document which is made evidence by law and is preserved in the office or place where the same was required or is permitted to be filed or kept, or a copy of any authorized record of such document so preserved, when certified by the person entitled to the official custody thereof to have been compared by him with the original and to be a correct transcript therefrom, shall be received in evidence in all cases, with the same force and effect given to such original document or record; but if such officer have, by law, an official seal, his certificate shall be authenticated thereby: Provided, that no part of this section relating to the form of certification shall apply to documents or records kept in the departments or offices of the United States government.

In all cases where a decree of Probate Court, assigning or distributing property of a decedent, embraces real estate or other property situated in more than one county, the Probate Court shall furnish upon request therefor, certified copies of parts of such decrees, excluding from such certified copy all descriptions of real or other property included in such decree excepting description of such real estate and other property as appears from the face of said decree to be situated in any one or more counties designated by the applicant for such certified copy. The Probate Court shall indicate the omission hereby permitted, in the certified copy, by the words "and other property situated in county, or counties, Minnesota" inserted in the certified copy at the points where the omissions occur. Such certified copy shall be entitled to record in the office of the Register of Deeds and in the office of the Registrar of Titles of the County, or counties, in which the real estate or other property in said certified copy described or any part thereof is situated. Such certified copy, or a copy of any authorized record of such certified copy, certified by the person entitled to the official custody thereof to have been compared by him with the original or the record thereof and to be a correct transcription therefrom, shall be received in evidence in all cases with the same force and effect given to such original decree relative to the matter in said certified copy or the record thereof contained. If such officer have by law an official seal his certificate shall be authenticated thereby. (4708) [8428] (Amended '27, c. 365)

1. Form of certificate—Applicable to judgment roll of foreign court (86-33, 90+7). Not applicable to exemplification of judgment of justice court of foreign state (70-433, 73+155); nor to certification of copy of resolution designating newspaper for publishing delinquent tax list (59-82, 60+845). Clerk of probate court authorized to make certificate and use seal (86-140, 90+378). Cited (14-236, 173; 35-532, 29+347).

2. Admissibility of certified copies—13-46, 39; 20-234, 212; 36-156, 30+659; 74-325, 77+207; 85-35, 88+2; 86-140, 90+378; 96-219, 104+955, 957; 115-321, 132+208. See 129-464, 148+459.

9863. When seal not necessary—Section 9862 shall not be construed to require the affixing of the seal of the court to any certified copy of a rule or order made by such court, or to any paper filed therein, when such copy is used in the same court or before any officer thereof. (4709) [8424]

9864. Instruments acknowledged—Evidence—Every written instrument, except promissory notes, bills of exchange, and the last wills of deceased persons, may be acknowledged in the manner now provided by law for taking the acknowledgment of deeds, and the certificate of the proper officer indorsed thereon shall entitle such instrument to be read in evidence in all courts and elsewhere without other proof of execution. (4710) [8425]

34-262, 25+592; 36-156, 30+659; 50-414, 52+907; 53-171, 54+1052; 64-284, 67+5. As evidence of delivery (102-382, 113+912; 114-44, 130+14). See 146-96, 177+1019.

9865. Deposit of papers with register or clerk—Every register of deeds, and every clerk of a court of record, upon being paid the legal fees therefor, shall receive and deposit in his office any instruments or papers which shall be offered him for that purpose, and, if required, shall give to the person depositing the same a receipt therefor. (4711) [8426]

9866. To be indorsed and filed—Such instruments or papers shall be filed by the officer receiving the same, and so indorsed as to indicate their general nature, the names of the parties thereto, and time when received, and shall be deposited and kept by him and his successors in office in the same manner as his official papers, but in a place separate therefrom. (4712) [8427]

9867. How withdrawn—Papers and instruments so deposited shall not be withdrawn from such office except upon the written order of the person depositing the same, or his executors or administrators, or on the order of some court for the purpose of being read in such court, and then to be returned to such office. When so deposited, they shall be open to the examination of any person desiring the same upon payment of the fees, if any, allowed by law. (4713) [8428]

9869. Copies of government records, etc.—Copies of any records or documents belonging to and being in any of the governmental departments of the United States, authenticated as such, so as to entitle the same to be received as evidence, in the courts of the United States, shall be received as evidence in the courts of this state. (4715) [8430]

67-197, 69+887.

9870. Copies of record of death in certain cases—That in all cases of joint tenancy in lands, and in all cases where any estate, title interest in, or lien upon, lands, has been or may be, created, which estate, title interest or lien was, or is, to continue only during the life of any person named or described in the instrument by which such estate, title, interest or lien was created, a copy of the record of the death of any such joint tenant, or of the person upon whose life such estate, title, interest or lien was or is limited, duly certified by any officer who is required by the law of the state or country in which such record is made, to keep a record of the death of persons occurring within the jurisdiction of such officer, may be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which such lands are situated, and such certified copy or such record thereof in said office or a duly certified copy of such last mentioned record shall be prima facie evidence of the death of such person and the termination of such joint tenancy and of all such estate, title, interest and lien as was or is limited upon the life of such person. ('13 c. 251 § 1) [8431]

LOST INSTRUMENTS

9871. Proof of loss—Whenever a party to an action is permitted to prove by his own oath the loss of any instrument, in order to admit other proof of the contents thereof, the adverse party, before the admission of such proof, may also be examined on oath to disprove such loss and to account for such instrument. (4716) [8432]

9872. Evidence of contents of lost bill, etc.—Whenever it appears on the trial of an action founded upon a negotiable promissory note, bill of exchange, bond, or other instrument for the payment of money, or in which any such instrument might be allowed as a set-off or counterclaim, that such instrument was lost while it belonged to the party claiming the amount due thereon in such action, parol or other evidence of the contents thereof may be given on such trial, and, notwithstanding the instrument was negotiable, such party shall be entitled to recover the amount due thereon as if it had been produced upon compliance with the provisions of § 9873. (4717) [8433]

9873. Bond to be given, when—To entitle a party to a recovery in such case, he shall execute a bond to the adverse party before judgment is entered, in a penalty at least double the amount of such instrument, approved by the court, or, in case no trial is had, by the clerk, conditioned to indemnify the adverse party, his heirs and personal representatives, against all claims by any other person on account of such instrument, and against all costs and expenses by reason of such claims: Provided, that if the statute of limitations has run against such instrument while the action is pending, and before a recovery is had thereon, the court, in its discretion, may reduce the amount of the penalty, or permit judgment to be entered without bond. (4718) [8434]

14-406, 308; 103-340, 114+1129.

9874. Deed or court records destroyed, etc.—Abstract of title, etc., as evidence—Whenever, upon the trial of any action or proceeding which is now, or hereafter may be, pending in any court in this state, any party to such action or proceeding, or his agent or attorney, shall make and file an affidavit in such cause, stating that the original of any deed or other instrument in writing or the records of any court relating to any lands, the title or any interest therein being in controversy or question in such action or proceeding, are lost or destroyed, and not within the power of such party to produce the same; and the record of such deed, instrument or other writing has been destroyed by fire or otherwise, it shall be lawful for the court to receive as evidence in such action or proceeding, any abstract of title to such lands made in the ordinary course of business before such loss or destruction. And it shall also be lawful for the court to receive as evidence any copy, extract or minutes from such destroyed records or from the original thereof, which were at the date of such destruction or loss, in the possession of any person then engaged in the business of making abstracts of title for others for hire. ('05 c. 193 § 1) [8435]

See '15 c. 233 admissibility of abstracts.

9875. Copies as evidence—A sworn copy of any writing admissible under section 1 [9874] of this act, made by the person having possession of such writing, shall be admissible in like manner and with like effect as such writing, provided that the party desiring to use such sworn copy as evidence shall have given the opposite party a reasonable opportunity to verify the correctness of such copy. ('05 c. 193 § 2) [8436]

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

9876. Account books—Loose-leaf system, etc.—Whenever a party in any cause or proceeding shall produce at the trial his account books, and prove that the same are his account books kept for that purpose, that they contain the original entries for moneys paid, goods or other articles delivered, services performed or material furnished; that such entries were made at the time of the transactions therein entered; that they are in his handwriting or that of a person authorized to make charges in said books, and are just and true to the best knowledge and belief of the person making the proof, such books, subject to all just exceptions as to their credibility, shall be received as prima facie evidence of the charges therein contained. If any book has marks which show that the items have been transferred to a ledger, it shall not be received unless the ledger is produced. Provided, that the entry of charges or credits, involving money, goods, chattels or services furnished or received, when the furnishing or receipt thereof constitutes a part of the usual course of business of the person on whose behalf such entry is made, shall be received as evidence tending to prove the fact of the furnishing or receiving of such moneys, goods, chattels or services, whether the same be contained in an account book, or in a so-called loose-leaf, card or similar system of keeping accounts, and whether the same be made by handwriting, typewriting or other similar means, if it shall appear that such entry was made by a duly authorized person contemporaneously with the transaction therein referred to, as a part of the general system of accounts of the person on whose behalf the entry is made, and that the same is made in the usual and ordinary course of said business. (R. L. § 4719, amended '09 c. 251 § 1) [8437]

Not limited to cases where the charges made and accounts kept are between both parties or between all parties to the action (77-31, 79-588; 90-370, 96+917. See 73-401, 76+215). Facts entered must be within personal knowledge of party making entries (90-370, 96+917). Sufficiency of foundation (66-138, 68+855; 76-227, 79+99; 86-133, 90+307; 87-402, 92+228; 139+609). It is not necessary, as at common law, that the books be authenticated by the oath of the clerk who made the entries. They may be verified by the party whose account books they are and if they are the books of a partnership they may be verified by any partner though the entries were not made by him (32-48, 19+82; 36-193, 30+545). It is not necessary that the books be kept in a formal manner or that the entry be explicitly a "charge," but they must be original entries substantially contemporaneous with the transaction. Entries made in a cash book every night in the usual course of business from slips made at the time of the transaction are original entries, but entries made in a journal from the stubs of a check book several days after the giving of the checks are not (21-225; 32-48, 19+82; 41-235, 42+1022; 66-138, 68+855). The statute does not exclude the common law mode of proving accounts by the party's clerk (21-225; 22-19). Whether business entries other than accounts are admissible when authenticated as provided by this statute is an open question (66-138, 68+855). Whether entries admissible lies in discretion of court (113-16, 128+1014). Cited (73-401, 76+215; 83-232, 86+88; 106-20, 118+153). See 124-189, 144+770; 126-464, 148+469; 127-535, 149+647; 128-422, 151+190; 140-362, 168+98.

The books of the defendant, sought to be introduced by the plaintiff a proof that he had not made a profit in a drug store business, as represented by him when he sold to the plaintiff, were properly rejected upon the ground that they failed to show that the representation was untrue. 159-131, 198+664.

The sufficiency of the showing for the admission of books of account is, in a measure, addressed to the discretion of the trial court, whose decision thereon will not be reversed if there be any proofs fairly tending to support it. 161-278, 201+421.

Probative effect of books of account. 161-353, 201+548.

A grain commission merchant had its employe, who made trades upon the floor of the Chamber of Commerce, make memoranda on trading cards. At the close of the day's session these cards were immediately taken to the office, and from them entries were made in the day book. The cards were made as a mere temporary means of securing accuracy. The entries in the books are the original entries, and the books are admissible in evidence without the production of such memoranda. 162-334, 202+740.

Telegrams, no more than any other documents, can be admitted in evidence without authentication. But a telegram is sufficiently authenticated, prima facie, when, from its contents and other circumstances in evidence, it can be reasonably inferred that the author of the message is the person sought to be charged or another lawfully acting for him. 213+553.

9877. Entries by a person deceased, admissible when—Entries made in any book by a person authorized to make the same, he being dead, may be received as evidence in a case proper for the admission of such book as evidence on proof that the same are in his handwriting and in a book kept for such entries, without further verification. (4720) [8438]

9878. Books proved by deposition—When such books or entries therein are proved by deposition, the production of the books before the officer taking the deposition shall be equivalent to producing the same at the trial, and copies of the entries therein contained desired to be introduced in evidence may be attached to the deposition as exhibits, and shall be evidence of like force and effect as the books. (4721) [8439]

9879. Letterpress copies—The production of a letterpress copy of any letter, before the officer taking the deposition, shall be equivalent to producing the same at the trial, and, when so produced, a copy thereof may be attached to the deposition as an exhibit, and shall be evidence of like force and effect as the letterpress copy itself; but such copies shall not be used if the original letters are produced at the trial. (4722) [8440]

Carbon copies (101-263, 112+252).

9880. Minutes of conviction and judgment—A copy of the minutes of any conviction and judgment, with a copy of the indictment on which the conviction was had, duly certified by the clerk in whose custody they are, shall be evidence of such conviction and judgment, without the production of the judgment roll. (4723) [8441]

See 123-413, 144+142.

9881. Transcript from justice's docket—A transcript from the docket of any justice of the peace of a judgment had before him, of the proceedings in the case previous to such judgment, of the execution issued thereon, and of the return of such execution, when certified by such justice, or his successor in office, shall be evidence to prove the facts contained in such transcript in any court of the county where the judgment was rendered. (4724) [8442]

9882. Same, for use in different county—To entitle such transcript to be read in evidence in another county, there shall be attached thereto a certificate of the clerk of the district court of the county in which the judgment was rendered, specifying that the person subscribing such transcript was at the date of such judgment a justice of the peace of such county. (4725) [8443]

9883. Proceedings before justice not written—The proceedings in any case had before a justice, not reduced to writing by him, nor being the contents of any paper produced before him, unless such paper be lost or destroyed, may be proved by the oath of such justice, or, in case of his death or absence, by producing the original minutes entered in a book kept by him, with proof of his handwriting; or they may be proved by producing copies of such minutes, sworn by a competent witness to have been compared by him with the original entries, with proof that such entries were in the handwriting of the justice. (4726) [8444]

An order to show cause why a previous order of the court denying a motion to vacate a judgment and permit the defendant to answer should not be vacated, the default removed, and the defendant permitted to answer, is equivalent to leave by the court to renew the first motion. 156-231, 194+376.

Whether a judgment shall be vacated and the defendant permitted to answer is within the sound discretion of the trial court. 156-231, 194+376.

9884. Certificate of conviction—Every certificate of conviction made and filed by a justice under the provisions of law, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be evidence of the facts therein contained. (4727) [8445]

9885. Exemplification of judgment in another state—An exemplification of a judgment rendered by any justice of the peace in any state, certified by such justice or his successor in office to be a full and correct copy from his docket of all the proceedings in that case, with a certificate of magistracy thereon, signed by a clerk of a court of record in the county where such judgment was rendered, and authenticated by the seal of such court, shall be evidence in any court of this state of the facts contained in such exemplification. (4728) [8446]

19-239, 198; 70-433, 73+155.

Judgment of municipal court of another state was properly proved by certified copy. 210+15.

9886. Inspection of documents—The court before which an action is pending may order either party to give to the other, within a specified time, an inspection and copy, or permission to take a copy, of any book, document, or paper in his possession or under his control, containing evidence relating to the merits of the case. If compliance is refused, the court may exclude the book, document, or paper, or, if wanted as evidence by the party applying, may direct the jury to presume it to be as alleged by him. The court may also punish the party refusing as for a contempt. This section shall not be construed to prevent a party from compelling another to produce books, papers, and documents when he is examined as a witness. (4729) [8447]

Denied when evidence sought inadmissible (46-249, 48+907). Ordered before issue joined (92-353, 100+92). Federal court cannot order production of books and papers before trial (192 Fed. 1013). Does not apply to criminal cases (117-384, 135+1128). Abrogates bills of discovery (63-91, 65+135). Cited (31-28, 16+417; 35-99, 27+503, 28+218). This section does not apply to criminal cases (117-384, 135+1128).

9887. Bills and notes—Indorsement—Signature to instruments presumed—In actions brought on promissory notes or bills of exchange by the indorsee, the possession of the note or bill shall be prima facie evidence that the same was indorsed by the person by whom it purports to be indorsed. Every written instrument purporting to have been signed or executed by any person shall be proof that it was so signed or executed until such person shall deny the signature or execution of the same by his oath or affidavit; but this shall not extend to instruments purporting to have been signed or executed by a person who has died before the requirement of such proof. (4730) [8448]

Effect of possession in action on promissory note (28-396, 10+421; 31-62, 16+466; 37-404, 34+901; 51-343, 53+645; 65-154, 67+1147; 68-166, 70+1033; 84-144, 86+872; 91-244, 97+971; 102-72, 112+1048). Checks are within the statute (59-504, 61+674). The second provision of the statute applies only to an instrument on which an action is brought against the maker thereof, or to an instrument on which a counterclaim or defense against the maker thereof is founded; an indorsement or assignment being an instrument within the meaning of the statute (30-441, 16+155; 45-277, 47+967; 73-266, 76+27). Not applicable where the signer is dead (73-266, 76+27). Applies only to instruments which purport on their face to have been signed or executed by the party or his agent (29-173, 12+515; 68-108, 70+872; 68-393, 71+399; 74-259, 77+141). Does not affect force of an acknowledgment (53-171, 54+1052; 118-350, 136+1041). A rule of evidence; not a rule of pleading. The only effect of a failure to comply with the statute is on the burden of proof (68-108, 70+872; 78-210, 80+965; 110-82, 124+637). A denial of execution in a pleading to be effectual under the statute must be specific and the pleading must be personally verified. A general denial is insufficient. The verification must be positive and not on information and belief (21-215; 30-308, 15+252; 36-130, 30+461; 47-377, 50+496; 51-343, 53+645; 61-40, 63+95; 68-108, 70+872). Applicable to instruments executed by corporations (28-396, 10+421; 37-404, 34+901; 61-274, 63+731; 102-93, 112+889). When instrument purports to be executed by an agent authority of agent need not be proved (31-62, 16+466; 61-274, 63+731; 68-108, 70+872; 74-259, 77+141). Does not qualify effect of acknowledgment under section 8425 as prima facie evidence of execution (102-382, 113+912; 118-350, 136+1041). Accident policy found with papers of insured after his death (110-291, 125+264). See 131-387, 155+214; 132-211, 156+265; 134+455.

Where a guaranty purports to be executed by a corporation, the statute makes the instrument proof of its due execution, unless its execution is denied under oath. 19-94, 198+304.

A corporation cannot become a mere accommodation surety for others, unless expressly authorized to do so; but a corporation which is a large stockholder in another corporation has such an interest therein that it may become a surety on its obligations. 159-94, 198+304.

The president of plaintiff sold and indorsed a draft payable to its order, and, in payment, received defendants' check payable to his order and a Liberty bond transferred to him. In this action against defendants for money had and received and for conversion of the draft it is held, the proof, establishes prima facie authority in the president to indorse and transfer the draft to defendants. 159-153, 198+422.

Notes signed for a corporation. "Security Elevator Company, by E. L. Welch, Pres." are, prima facie evidence of their due execution, in the absence of the denial thereof by "oath or affidavit," referred to in the statute. 161-30, 200+851.

Where indorsement purports to have been made by authority of the payee, there is no presumption of want of such authority, where it is alleged in the complaint that the indorsement was duly made by the indorser. 167-394, 209+311.

The latter part of section, making signed written instruments automatic proof of their execution, applies only to an instrument on which the action, or a defense or counterclaim therein, is based. 209+879.

Inapplicable to telegrams. 213+553.

9888. Indorsement of money received—An indorsement of money received, on any promissory note, which appears to have been made when it was against the interest of the holder to make it, is prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. (4731) [8449]

18-66, 51; 29-173, 12+515. May be contradicted or explained by parol (97-1, 105+971). Cited (97-214, 106+310). See 133-289, 158+391.

9890. Land office certificate evidence of title, when—The certificate of the register or receiver of any United States land office, showing when, how, and by whom any lands within this state were entered under the homestead, pre-emption, or timber-culture laws of the United States, shall be prima facie evidence that the person named therein was at the date of such entry the owner in fee of such lands. (4733) [8451]

29-283, 13+127; 39-191, 39+97; 67-197, 69+887; 92-341, 100+88; 94-289, 102+712.

9891. Certificate of department officer—The certificate of any officer of any department of the United States government to any fact appearing of record in his department, authenticated by his official seal if he has one, shall be prima facie evidence of such fact. (4734) [8452]

9892. Federal census—Population—That the governor of the state of Minnesota shall obtain from the director of the federal census, such certified copies thereof as will show the population of the several political divisions of this state, which said certified copies shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and thereafter the several political divisions of the state for all purposes, unless otherwise provided, shall be deemed to have the population thereby disclosed. Copies thereof, duly certified to by the secretary of state, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein disclosed in all the courts of this state. ('11 c. 200 § 1) [8453]

9894. Plats of surveys from land office—Certificate of county surveyor—Any plat of a survey of public lands, certified by the register of the United States land office of the district in which such land is situated to be a true copy of the certified copy of the original on file in his office, and any certificate by such register of the surveys or entry and location of, or other facts in relation to, such lands, taken from the books of such land office, or from the certificate indorsed on the copy of the original plat on file therein, are prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. The certificate of any county surveyor or deputy shall be evidence of the facts therein stated, but may be explained or rebutted by other testimony. (4736) [8455]

12-451, 347; 21-332; 26-201, 2+497; 62-388, 64+922; 151-295, 186+712.

9895. Instruments, records thereof, and copies—All original instruments and certified copies thereof authorized by law to be recorded, and, if recorded, the record thereof, or a duly certified transcript of such record, shall be received in evidence without further proof, subject to rebuttal. (4737) [8456]

6-25, 1; 9-230, 215; 16-457, 411; 33-271, 22+614; 42-371, 44+130; 45-277, 47+967; 53-171, 54+1052; 66-400, 69+321.

9896. Abstracts of title to be received in evidence—In any action wherein the title to real property is in controversy, any abstract of title thereof, duly certified by any bonded abstractor or by any Register of Deeds of any county wherein said real property is situated, shall be received as prima facie evidence of all instruments therein referred to, together with the records thereof as recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of such County. ('15 c. 283 § 1)

9897. Evidence of corporation or copartnership—In actions brought by a corporation or by any persons as copartners, or by the indorsees of any such corporation or copartners, upon any written instrument for the payment of money only, executed by the defendant to such corporation by its corporate name, or to such copartners by their firm name, the production in evidence of the instrument upon which the action is brought shall be prima facie evidence of the existence of such corporation, or that the persons named as payees in such instrument are, and at the time of its execution were, such copartners. (4738) [8457]

9898. Marriage certificate and record—The original certificate and record of marriage, made by the person solemnizing such marriage as prescribed by law, and the record thereof or a duly certified copy of such record, shall be prima facie evidence of such marriage. (4739) [8458]

41-50, 42+602.

9899. Fact of marriage, how proved—When the fact of marriage is required or offered to be proved before any court, evidence of the admission of such fact by the party against whom the proceeding is instituted, or of general repute, or of cohabitation as married persons, or any other circumstantial or presumptive evidence from which the fact may be inferred, shall be competent. (4740) [8459]

12-476, 378; 16-243, 214; 25-29; 58-268, 59+1013; 122-407, 142+593.

9900. In prosecutions for forgery, etc., of treasury notes, etc.—In prosecutions for forging or counterfeiting any note, certificate, bill of credit, or security issued on behalf of the United States or of any state, or for uttering, publishing, or tendering in payment as true any such forged or counterfeit note, certificate, bill of credit, or security, or for being possessed thereof with intent to utter and pass the same as true, the certificate, under oath, of the secretary of the treasury or of the treasurer of the United States, or of the secretary or treasurer of any state in whose behalf such note, certificate, bill of credit, or security purports to have been issued, shall be admitted as evidence for the purpose of proving the same to be forged or counterfeit. (4741) [8460]

9901. Bank notes, etc.—In prosecutions for forging or counterfeiting any notes or bills of a banking company or corporation, or for uttering, publishing, or tendering in payment as true any such forged or counterfeit bills or notes, or for being possessed thereof with the intent to utter and pass them as true, the testimony of any person acquainted with the signature of the president or cashier of such bank, or who has knowledge of the difference in appearance of the true and counterfeit bills or notes thereof shall be competent to prove that any such bill or note is counterfeit, without calling such president or cashier. (4742) [8461]

4-368, 277; 22-76; 29-221, 13+140; 128-163, 150+787; 146-35, 177+779; 146-136, 178+164; 146-189, 178+491; 151-379, 186+708; 196+279.

Not applicable to prosecution under city ordinance. 157-506, 196+279.

9903. Uncorroborated evidence of accomplice—A conviction cannot be had upon the testimony of an accomplice, unless it is corroborated by such other evidence as tends to convict the defendant of the commission of the offense, and the corroboration is not sufficient if it merely shows the commission of the offense or the circumstances thereof. (4744) [8463]

While the corroborating evidence must be such as tends to show some connection of the defendant with the acts constituting the crime charged, yet it is not necessary that there should be corroboration as to every probative fact. The statute does not require a case to be made out against the accused sufficient for his conviction before the testimony of an accomplice can be considered. The corroborating evidence must, independently of the testimony of the accomplice, tend in some degree to establish the guilt of the accused, but need not be sufficiently weighty or full, as, standing alone, to justify a conviction (28-216, 9+698; 30-522, 16+ 406; 40-77, 41+463; 73-232, 76+34; 82-434, 85+234; 86-249, 90+390). Need not be sufficient, standing alone, to make out prima facie case (103-92, 114+363). Whether a witness is an accomplice is for the jury (28-216, 9+698). When evidence has a reasonable tendency to corroborate the testimony of an accomplice its weight is for the jury (82-434, 85+234). The test as to whether a witness is an accomplice is, could he himself have been indicted for the offense, either as principal or accessory? (73-150, 75+1127; 105-217, 117-483). The following persons have been held not to be accomplices: a person purchasing beer on Sunday (37-212, 34+24); a person paying money for the suppression of evidence of a crime (40-55, 41+299); a woman submitting to an abortion (22-238; 56-226, 57+652, 57+1065); a person giving or offering a bribe (71-28, 73+626; 73-150, 75+1127). Corroboration is not necessary in a prosecution for rape (57-482, 59+479), or under the bastardy act (29-357, 13+153). Necessity of corroboration in prosecution for subornation of perjury (85-19, 88+22). See 122-493, 142+823; 124-408, 145+39; 131-276, 154+1095; 135-159, 160+677; 144-351, 175+689; 147-383, 181+570; 149-41, 182+721; 151-318, 186+580; 193+680, 196+279.

The state's principal witness, an accomplice of the defendant if the defendant was guilty, was sufficiently corroborated, and the evidence sustains the conviction. 157-168, 195+776.

Not applicable to prosecution under city ordinance. 157-506, 196+279.

One who purchases intoxicating liquor from another unlawfully in possession of such liquor, with intent to sell the same, does not thereby become an accomplice. 160-314, 200+93.

The testimony, aside from that of the accomplice, sufficiently connected defendant with the crime charged. 161-1, 200+815.

There was no error in the instructions excepted to. 161-1, 200+815.

Evidence to corroborate an accomplice must rest on other than his credit, but it need not be of itself sufficient to prove guilt. 210+10.

The testimony of an accomplice that he set the fire is corroborated, and it is not necessary to determine whether or not the testimony of an accomplice alone is sufficient to prove the corpus delicti. 210+833.

9904. In prosecutions for libel—Right of jury—In all criminal prosecutions for libel, the truth may be given in evidence, and if it appears to the jury that the matter charged as libelous is true, and was published with good motives and justifiable ends, the party shall be acquitted; and the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the fact. (4745) [8464]

82-452, 85+217.

Even though the jury in a criminal libel prosecution, under our statute, has the right to determine the law and the facts, the function of the court is to instruct them as to the law applicable to the issues, including the right given them by said statute. 166-279, 207+648.

9905. Divorce—Testimony of parties—Divorces shall not be granted on the sole confessions, admissions, or testimony of the parties, either in or out of court. (4746) [8465]

6-458, 315; 81-242, 83+988; 86-249, 90+390; 126-65, 147+825; 152-242, 188+317.

9798. Admission to bail.

Where warrant does not state whether or not person shall be admitted to bail and defendant is before court, court has jurisdiction. State v. Binder, 190M305, 251NW 665, overruling Papke v. Papke, 30 Minn. 260, 282, 15NW 117. See Dun. Dig. 1706.

9801. Hearing.

In cases of strictly criminal contempt, rules of law and evidence applied in criminal cases must be observed, and defendant's guilt must be established beyond a reasonable doubt. State v. Binder, 190M305, 251NW665. See Dun. Dig. 1705.

9802. Penalties for contempt of court.—Upon the evidence so taken, the court or officer shall determine the guilt or innocence of the person proceeded against, and, if he is adjudged guilty of the contempt charged, he shall be punished by a fine of not more than $250.00, or by imprisonment in the county jail, workhouse or work farm for not more than six months, or by both. But in case of his inability to pay the fine or endure the imprisonment, he may be relieved by the court or officer in such manner and upon such terms as may be just. (R. L. '05, §4648; G. S. '13, §8363; Apr. 15, 1933, c. 267.)

Contempt is not a "crime" within §9934, and, in view of §9802, punishment can only be by imprisonment in county jail and not in a workhouse. 175M57, 220NW414.

Section 9794 authorizes a punishment for a constructive contempt whereby right or remedy of a party to an action or special proceeding is defeated or prejudiced, a fine exceeding $50 or imprisonment, or both, subject to limitations of this section. Wenger v. W., 200M515, 274NW517. See Dun. Dig. 1708.

An order discharging an order to show cause and dismissing a criminal contempt proceeding can only be reviewed by certiorari, and fact that trial court may have based its order on mistaken belief that it lacked jurisdiction does not affect mode of review. Spannaus v. L., 202M497, 279NW216. See Dun. Dig. 1391.

9803. Indemnity to injured party.

Postnuptial agreements properly made between husband and wife after a separation, are not contrary to public policy, but the parties cannot, by a postnuptial agreement, oust the court of jurisdiction to award al-mony or to punish for contempt a failure to comply with the judgment, though it followed the agreement. 178M 75, 226NW211.

Fines for contempt as indemnity to a party in an action. 16MinnLawRev791.

9804. Imprisonment until performance.

A proceeding to coerce payment of money is for a civil contempt. Imprisonment cannot be imposed on one who is unable to pay. 173M100, 216NW606.

Payment of alimony and attorney's fees. 178M75, 226NW701.

A lawful judicial command to a corporation is in effect a command to its officers, who may be punished for contempt for disobedience to its terms. 181M559, 233NW 586. See Dun. Dig. 1708.

Father of a bastard cannot be punished for contempt in not obeying an order to save money which it is not in his power to obey. State v. Strong, 192M420, 256NW 900. See Dun. Dig. 850, 1703.

One failing to replace lateral support as required by judgment held guilty of constructive contempt. Johnson v. F., 196M81, 264NW232. See Dun. Dig. 1702.

Habeas corpus is not to be used as substitute for an appeal or writ of error, and therefore cannot be used to determine whether or not there was an erroneous decision of issue whether relator was or was not able to pay alimony supporting order of imprisonment for contempt. State v. Gibbons, 199M445, 271NW873. See Dun. Dig. 4129.

Section relates simply to present coercing of compliance by imprisonment, which is not authorized unless it be shown that party complained of has present ability to comply. Wenger v. W., 200M436, 274NW517. See Dun. Dig. 1708.

Provisions authorizing one guilty of contempt to purge himself are proper and are within the sound discretion of the court. Id.

A commitment which embodies judgment of conviction of criminal contempt, which is unmistakably charged in commitment, is adequate to entitle sheriff to custody of defendant until sentence imposed has been served. State v. Syck, 202M252, 277NW926. Cert. den., 59SCR64. See Dun. Dig. 1708.

9807. Hearing.

It is not against public policy to receive testimony of jurors in a proceeding for contempt of one of the jurors in obtaining her acceptance on the jury by willful concealment of her interest in the case. U. S. v. Clark, (DC-Minn.), 1FSupp747. Aff'd 61F(2d)695, aff'd 289US1, 53SCR465.

CHAPTER 92

Witnesses and Evidence

WITNESSES

9808. Definition.

Testimony on former trial admissible where witness absent from state. 171M216, 213NW902.

Whether collateral matters may be proved to discredit a witness is within the discretion of the trial court. 171M515, 213NW923.

The foundation for expert testimony is largely a matter within the discretion of the trial court. Dumbeck v. C., 177M261, 225NW111.

Where a witness is able to testify to the material facts from his own recollection, it is not prejudicial error to refuse to permit him to refer to a memorandum in order to refresh his memory. Bullock v. N., 182M192, 233NW858. See Dun. State v. Novak, 181M504, 233NW 309. See Dun. Dig. 10344a.

There was no violation of the parol evidence rule in admitting testimony to identify the party with whom defendant contracted, the written contract being ambiguous and uncertain. Drabek v. W., 182M217, 234NW 6. See Dun. Dig. 3368.

After prima-facie proof that the person who negotiated the contract the defendant signed was the agent of plaintiff, evidence of such person's declarations or statements during the negotiation was admissible. Drabek v. W., 182M217, 234NW6. See Dun. Dig. 3393.

Letter written by expert witness contrary to his testimony, held admissible. Jensen v. M., 185M284, 240NW 656. See Dun. Dig. 3343.

9809. Subpoena, by whom issued.

Power of trial judge to summon witnesses. 15Minn LawRev350.

9810. How served.

A subpoena issued by Senate investigation committee sent to person for whom it is intended by registered mail is of no effect. Op. Atty. Gen., Apr. 12, 1933.

Subpoena to appear before senate committee must be served by an individual and one sent by registered mail is without effect. Op. Atty. Gen., Apr. 12, 1933.

Secretary of conservation commission could not be required by subpoena to produce all of his correspondence with certain official before committee of senate making investigation. Id.

9814. Competency of witnesses.—Every person of sufficient understanding, including a party, may testify in any action or proceeding, civil or criminal, in court or before any person who has authority to receive evidence, except as follows:
* * * * *

3. A clergyman or other minister of any religion shall not, without the consent of the party making the confession, be allowed to disclose a confession made to him in his professional character, in the course of discipline enjoined by the rules or practice of the religious body to which he belongs. Nor shall a clergyman or other minister of any religion be examined as to any communication made to him by any person seeking religious or spiritual advice, aid or comfort or his advice given thereon in the course of his professional character, without the consent of such person. (Act Apr. 18, 1931, c. 206, §1.)

1/2. In general.

A justified disbelief in the testimony of a witness does not justify a finding of a fact to the contrary without evidence in its support. State v. Novak, 181M504, 233NW309. See Dun. Dig. 10344a.

The court did not err in excluding the opinion of plaintiff's expert as to values. Carl Lindquist & Carlson, Inc., v. J., 182M529, 235NW267. See Dun. Dig. 3322.

Owner's opinion of the value of his house as it would have been if plaintiff's work had been properly done, was admissible. Carl Lindquist & Carlson, Inc., v. J., 182M529, 235NW267. See Dun. Dig. 3322(4).

There was no error in permitting the mother of the three-year-old child who was injured to testify as to the indications the child gave of injury at the time of the accident, nor as to the duration of its disability. Ball v. G., 185M105, 240NW100. See Dun. Dig. 3232.

Whether nurse operating hospital could testify as to her observations of a patient made independently of her work with doctor, discussed. State v. Voges, 197M85, 266 NW265.

1. All persons not excepted competent.

Except when essential to ends of justice, a lawyer should avoid testifying in court in behalf of his client. Ferraro v. T., 197M5, 265NW829. See Dun. Dig. 10306a.

In bastardy proceedings wherein there was no exception or objection to charge, court did not err in submitting case to jury in absence of proof that child was born alive or was still living, and no proof that defendant was not husband of complaining witness, since it is not conceivable that defendant would not attempt to deceive state by setting forth his rights under §§8579, 9814(1). State v. Van Guilder, 199M214, 271NW473. See Dun. Dig. 840.

3. Subdivision 1.

Not applicable in action by wife to set aside conveyance obtained by fraud of husband. 173M51, 216NW 311.

Prohibition of this subdivision applies in actions for alienation of affections. 175M414, 221NW639.

Plaintiff in action for alienation or criminal conversation could not testify to admissions made to him by his deceased wife concerning meretricious relations with defendant, though defendant requested him to ask his wife about the matter. 177M577, 226NW195.

Husband and wife are competent to give evidence that the former is not the father of a child of the wife conceived before the dissolution of the marriage by divorce. State v. Soyka, 181M502, 233NW300. See Dun. Dig. 10312.

Defendant by calling his wife as a witness waived his privilege. State v. Stearns, 184M452, 238NW895. See Dun. Dig. 10312(59).

Wife cannot be examined as a witness for or against her husband without his consent. Albrecht v. P., 192M 557, 257NW377. See Dun. Dig. 10312.

Statute does not apply to cases where the testimony of mother of illegitimate child is sought to be used against man being tried under illegitimacy statutes and whom she has married prior to trial. State v. Feste, 235 NW85. See Dun. Dig. 10312.

In will contest there was no error in refusal to permit divorced wife of decedent to testify as to a conversation with testator which had occurred during marriage. Oason's Estate, 286NW306. See Dun. Dig. 10312.

Some observations on the law of evidence: Family relations. 13MinnLawRev675.

4. Subdivision 2.

Volunteering information on the witness stand. 171M 492, 214NW666.

On application to share in grandfather's estate on ground of unintentional omission from will, communications between testator and attorney who drew will were not privileged. 177M169, 225NW109.

Communications by a testator to attorney drafting his will are not privileged in litigation over estate between persons, all of whom claim under testator. Hanefeld v. F., 191M547, 254NW821. See Dun. Dig. 10313.

4½. Subdivision 3.

For a confession to a clergyman to be privileged it must be penitential in character and made to him in his professional character as such clergyman in confidence while seeking religious or spiritual advice, aid, or comfort, but the court cannot require the disclosure of the confession to determine if it is privileged. In re Swenson, 183M502, 237NW589. See Dun. Dig. 10314.

Statement of the witness held not given by way of confession or in obtaining spiritual comfort or consolation and was not privileged. Christensen v. P., 189M 548, 250NW363. See Dun. Dig. 10314a.

Privilege of confidential communications made to clergyman. 16MinnLawRev105.

5. Subdivision 4.

180M205, 230NW648.
In action on life insurance policy, testimony of dietitian who had directed diet of insured, held admissible. First Trust Co. v. K., (USCCA8), 79F(2d)48.

Information acquired by a physician in attempting to revive a patient, and opinions based thereon, are within protection of section, although patient may have been dead when such attempts were made. Palmer v. O., 187 M272, 245NW146. See Dun. Dig. 10314.

A doctor may testify that he has been consulted but he may not against objection disclose any information which he obtained at such consultation. Stone v. S., 189M 47, 248NW285. See Dun. Dig. 10314.

Admission in evidence of privileged communication to physicians was immaterial where other testimony required a directed verdict. Sorenson v. N., 195M298, 262 NW868. See Dun. Dig. 10314.

Where examination and treatment of a patient by two or more physicians or surgeons is a unitary affair and patient permits one of them, as his own witness, to testify as to whole matter, privilege is waived. Doll v. S., 201M319, 276NW281. See Dun. Dig. 10314.

Privilege of physician performing autopsy. 12MinnLaw Rev390.

Communications between superintendent of state hospital and patient are privileged. Op. Atty. Gen., May 9, 1933.

6. Subdivision 5.

Commercial Union Ins. Co. v. C., 183M1, 235NW634. See Dun. Dig. 10315(20).

Court properly sustained objection to question asked prosecuting attorney with respect to a disclosure made to him by an accomplice of accused who testified against defendant, though proper foundation was laid for impeachment. 172M106, 214NW732.

City clerk may withhold from public inspection letters and papers which are not a part of regular files and records prescribed or required to be kept by law, or consist of communications made to city clerk or other official in official confidence and public interest would suffer by their inspection or disclosure. Op. Atty. Gen., Oct. 26, 1933.

Confidential information given to child welfare board should be classed as privilege and its disclosure would be contrary to public interest. Op. Atty. Gen., Dec. 29, 1933.

Public records of a municipality are open to inspection by any citizen of the state. Op. Atty. Gen. (59a-6), Apr. 27, 1934.

Subject to this subdivision records of state department of education and of public schools are open to any taxpayer. Op. Atty. Gen. (8511), Apr. 2, 1935.

Records of Seed Inspection Division are open to inspection by any one having a legitimate interest therein. Op. Atty. Gen. (136e), July 29, 1936.

7. Subdivision 6.

Whether a plaintiff, committed to state hospital at Fergus Falls, might testify was a question for trial court. Ross v. D., 203M321, 281NW76. See Dun. Dig. 10310.

9815. Accused.

1. In general.

Allusion to fact that defendant did not take stand was harmless in view of strong evidence of guilt. State v. Zemple, 196M159, 264NW587. See Dun. Dig. 10307.

Prosecuting attorney cannot comment on failure of defendant to testify. State v. Bean, 199M16, 270NW918. See Dun. Dig. 10307.

Failure of defendant to testify in his own behalf or to produce evidence to meet that furnished by accomplices could not be considered against him. State v. Scott, 203M56, 279NW832. See Dun. Dig. 10307.

2. Cross-examination of accused.

Statement of defendant in cross-examination that he never robbed anybody does not put his general character in issue. 181M566, 233NW307. See Dun. Dig. 2458.

There was no error in cross-examination of defendant because it tended to subject him to prejudice on account of his associations and earlier career. State v. Quinn, 186M242, 243NW70.

A defendant in a criminal case, who is a witness in his own behalf, may be cross-examined upon collateral matters to affect his credibility and to discredit him, and to some extent state may inquire into his past life, and extent of the cross-examination is largely within discretion of trial court. State v. McTague, 190M449, 252 NW446. See Dun. Dig. 10307, 10309.

9816. Examination by adverse party.

1. Object and effect of statute.

The record does not show that appellant had any ground for complaint because of the ruling of court denying him the right to cross-examine his co-defendant while the latter was still on the stand after cross-examination under the statute by respondent's attorney. Lund v. O., 182M204, 234NW310. See Dun. Dig. 10327.

2. Who may be called.

In action against railroad there was no error in permitting a district master car builder to be called by plaintiff for cross-examination, even though not occupying the same position as at the time the cause of action arose. 175M197, 220NW602.

In a proceeding for discipline and disbarment of an attorney, he may be called for cross-examination under the statute. In re Halvorson, 175M520, 221NW907.

Defendant in default of an answer could be called under the statute. 176M108, 222NW576.

A railway section foreman held properly called for cross-examination in action against railroad. 176M331, 223NW605.

Attorney involved in transaction, but not a party, held improperly called under this section. 180M104, 230NW 277.

In action against owner of truck, it was not reversible error to permit driver of truck to be called for cross-examination under statute. Ludwig v. H., 187M315, 245 NW371. See Dun. Dig. 10327.

Where summons and complaint were properly served on a minor and he interposed an answer by his attorney before any guardian ad litem had been appointed for him and on day of trial a guardian ad litem was appointed, such defendant was an actual defendant at the trial who could be called for cross-examination as an adverse party. Wagstrom v. J., 192M220, 255NW822. See Dun. Dig. 4454, 4462.

Even though a minor defendant were not a proper party defendant, it was not prejudicial error to permit him to be called for cross-examination under the statute, as he could have been called as a witness for plaintiff and court would have permitted a cross-examination irrespective of the statute. Id. See Dun. Dig. 422, 10327.

Defendant in bastardy proceeding may be called and examined. Op. Atty. Gen., Aug. 30, 1929.

3. In what actions or proceedings.

A bastardy proceeding is a civil proceeding, not a criminal action, and defendant may be called by prosecution for cross-examination. State v. Jeffrey, 188M476, 247NW692. See Dun. Dig. 10327d.

4. Scope of examination.

In action against driver of an automobile and his alleged employer for injuries sustained in a collision, in which driver admitted alleged employment in his pleadings, held it was improper to permit cross-examination of driver as an adverse party upon issue of employment. P. F. Collier & Son v. H. (USCCA8), 72F(2d)625. See Dun. Dig. 10327.

It was within discretion of trial court to restrict examination of defendant when called for cross-examination to matters within his knowledge and of which plaintiff had no proof at hand. Bylund v. C., 203M484, 281NW873. See Dun. Dig. 10327(49).

A plaintiff may prove his cause of action by cross-examination of the defendant. Id. See Dun. Dig. 10327(49). Statute is remedial, to be construed and applied with reasonable liberality, but this does not mean that party calling adversary for cross-examination may ask any question desired without regard to issues tried or status of trial. Id. See Dun. Dig. 10327(49).

5. Contradiction and impeachment of witness.

A party calling the adverse party under this section, and failing to obtain the proof sought, held not entitled to favorable decision on assumption that the testimony given was false. 178M568, 227NW896.

6. Error without prejudice.

Plaintiffs in taxpayers' suit to restrain construction of a power plant were not prejudiced by the ruling of the trial court refusing to allow them to call the village attorney for cross-examination under the statute. Davies v. V., 287NW1. See Dun. Dig. 10327.

9817. Conversation with deceased or insane person.

1. In general.

Whether testimony, objected to as conversation with a person since deceased, was improperly admitted, was immaterial, where only conclusion possible under all other evidence in case was that industrial commission properly denied compensation. Anderson v. R., 196M358, 267NW501. See Dun. Dig. 10316.

1. Who incompetent.

In action to enjoin barring of right of way claimed by prescription, defendant and her children had such an interest in the subject-matter that they could not testify as to conversations between plaintiff and their deceased husband and father regarding the right of way. 171M358, 214NW49.

Plaintiff in action for alienation or criminal conversation could not testify to admissions made to him by his deceased wife concerning meretricious relations with defendant, though defendant requested him to ask his wife about the matter. 177M577, 226NW195.

In action by wife alone to enjoin foreclosure of mortgage executed by husband and wife and cancel note and mortgage for fraud, husband could testify as to a conversation with a person since deceased. 178M452, 227NW501.

New debtor arising by novation was competent to testify to conversation with deceased creditor. 180M75, 230NW468.

Statements made by an injured person, since deceased, to a party or person interested in the outcome of the action, are inadmissible in evidence, and such statements are not rendered admissible in evidence by the fact that they are part of the res gestae, or excepted from the hearsay rule, or classed as verbal acts. Dougherty v. G., 184M436, 239NW153; note under §9657. See Dun. Dig. 10316.

One financially interested in result of law suit may not testify to conversations between deceased and other party. Cohoon v. L., 188M429, 247NW520. See Dun. Dig. 10316b.

An executor or administrator, being merely legal representative of estate, is a party to record but is not a party to issue, and is not rendered incompetent to testify with regard to conversations with decedent. Exsted v. E., 202M521, 279NW554. See Dun. Dig. 10316(37).

Since statute operates to exclude otherwise competent evidence, it should be strictly, although fairly, construed. Id. See Dun. Dig. 10316.

Section applies to proceedings under Workmen's Compensation Act. Kayser v. C., 204M578, 282NW801. See Dun. Dig. 10316.

Trustee of a particular 100 shares of corporate stock, although a party of record, was not a party "interested in the events thereof" with respect to division of stock not involved in the trust. Keough v. S., 285NW809. See Dun. Dig. 10316.

It was technical error to permit a party to testify that he had no conversation with deceased concerning a certain matter, but this would not require a new trial where other evidence compelled conclusion that witness did not participate in corporate affairs involved. Id. See Dun. Dig. 10316.

A trustee of an express oral trust in personality, a party to suit, but claiming no personal interest in trust, is not barred from testifying as to conversations with deceased creator of trust. Salscheider v. H., 286NW347. See Dun. Dig. 10316.

1b. Heirs.

A beneficiary under a will may give conversations with the testator for the purpose of laying foundation to testify as to the testator's mental condition. 177M226, 225NW102.

Declarations of a deceased grantor are not admissible in an action by his heirs to set aside the deed because of the alleged undue influence and duress used by the grantee in its procurement; such declarations not being against the interest of the grantor. Reek v. R., 184M532, 239NW599. See Dun. Dig. 10316.

In action by personal representative under Federal Employers' Liability Act to recover damages for death of employee, and also for conscious pain and suffering prior to death, an adult son employee who was in no way dependent upon him was competent to testify as to a conversation with deceased as to cause of action for wrongful death, but was incompetent to testify as to cause of action for pain and suffering. Noesen v. M., 204M233, 283NW246. See Dun. Dig. 10316.

1c. Conversations between deceased and third persons.

Does not exclude testimony of husband of granddaughter and heir as to conversations with decedent. 181M217, 232NW1. See Dun. Dig. 10316.

Court rightly refused to strike as incompetent testimony of a witness not financially interested in suit, that deceased admitted he had agreed to pay his son and daughter for services they were rendering him. Holland v. M., 189M172, 248NW750. See Dun. Dig. 10316b.

Where so-called admission against interest of deceased person is not in respect to specific issue litigated, but rather indirectly or upon a collateral matter, evidence going to contradict or explain same should be admitted. Empenger v. E., 194M219, 261NW185. See Dun. Dig. 3298.

Wives of men dealing with decedent were competent to testify as to conversation between husbands and deceased. Anderson v. A., 197M252, 266NW841. See Dun. Dig. 10316.

1f. Acts and transactions in general.

As respecting gift of notes by decedent to plaintiff, latter could not testify that deceased handed notes properly endorsed to him and that he handed them back to decedent to take care of them for him. Quarfat v. S., 189M451, 249NW668. See Dun. Dig. 10316.

Where claimant introduced proof of statements of deceased in respect to a collateral matter, not in nature of a direct admission against interest upon litigated issue, it was error to exclude other statements of deceased to meet or explain the statements introduced. Empenger v. E., 194M219, 259NW795. See Dun. Dig. 3237.

Conveyances made of parts of farm on which parties lived, as one family, were properly received as having some tendency to show existence or nonexistence of a contract to will property to daughter-in-law for services rendered as claimed by claimant, but diaries of deceased containing no entries relative to any issue litigated were not admissible. Id. See Dun. Dig. 10207.

It is desirable that court be liberal in receiving evidence of collateral matter tending to prove or disprove alleged contract upon which claim against decedent is based, and while admissions against interest by deceased are admissible, self-serving statements are not. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3408.

Res Gestae. 22MinnLawRev391.

3. Written admissions and acts.

Action on life insurance policy held not required to be submitted to jury on ground evidence of decedent's fraudulent representation rested entirely on testimony of survivor to transaction with decedent, as statements of decedent were contained in application signed by him and attached to policy on which action was based. First Trust Co. v. K., (USCCA8), 79F(2d) 48.

4. Conversation with whom.

A conversation by an interested party with a third party, if otherwise competent, is not incompetent because overheard by a party since deceased. Sievers v. S., 189M576, 250NW574. See Dun. Dig. 10316.

Insured was necessarily a participant in conversation resulting in contract that if beneficiaries were not changed, named beneficiaries would give proceeds of policy to plaintiffs. Id. See Dun. Dig. 10316.

5. Waiving objection by cross-examination.

Question to plaintiff by defendant's counsel, held not to open the door so as to permit him to testify generally as to conversations with deceased. 175M27, 220NW154.

7. Waiver.

Objection to competency of witness or evidence cannot be first raised on motion for new trial or on appeal. 178M452, 227NW501.

9819-1. Witnesses in criminal cases.—If a judge of a court of record in any state which by its laws has made provision for commanding persons within that state to attend and testify in criminal actions in this state certifies under the seal of such court that there is a criminal action pending in such court, that a person being within this state is a material witness in such action, and that his presence will be required for a specified number of days at the trial of such action, upon presentation of such certificate to any judge of the district court of the county in which such person resides, or the county in which such person is found if not a resident of this state, such judge shall fix a time and place for a hearing and shall notify the witness of such time and place.

If at the hearing the judge determines that the witness is material and necessary, either for the prosecution or the defense in such criminal action, that it will not cause undue hardship to the witness to be compelled to attend and testify in the action in the other state, that the witness will not be compelled to travel more than one thousand miles to reach the place of trial by the ordinary traveled route, and that the laws of the state in which the action is pending and of any other state through which the witness may be required to pass by ordinary course of travel will give to him protection from arrest and the service of civil and criminal process, he shall make an order, with a copy of the certificate attached, directing the witness to attend and testify in the court where the action is pending at a time and place specified in the certificate.

This act has been adopted by: Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Idaho, Indiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Puerto Rico, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

If the witness, who is named in such order as above provided after being paid or tendered by some properly authorized person the sum of ten cents a mile for each mile by the ordinary traveled route to and from the court where the action is pending and five dollars for each day that he is required to travel and attend as a witness, fails without good cause to attend and testify as directed by such order, he shall be guilty of constructive contempt of court and shall be punished according to law. (Act Apr. 11, 1935, c. 140, §1.)

9819-2. Nonresident witnesses.—If a person, in any state, which by its laws has made provision for commanding persons within that state to attend and testify either for the prosecution or the defense in criminal actions in this state, is a material witness in an action pending in a district court of this state, a judge of such court may issue a certificate under the seal of the court stating these facts and specifying the number of days the witness will be required. This certificate shall be presented to a judge of a court of record in the county in which the witness resides, or the county in which he is found if not a resident of that state.

If the witness is ordered by the court to attend and testify in a criminal action in this state he shall be tendered the sum of ten cents a mile for each mile by the ordinary traveled route to and from the court where the action is pending and five dollars for each day that he is required to travel and attend as a witness. A witness who has appeared in accordance with the provisions of the order of the court shall not be required to remain within this state a longer period of time than the period mentioned in the certificate. (Act Apr. 11, 1935, c. 140, §2.)

9819-3. Witnesses not to be subject to arrest or service of process.—If a person comes into this state in obedience to a court order directing him to attend and testify in a criminal action in this state he shall not, while in this state, pursuant to such court order, be subject to arrest or the service of process, civil or criminal, in connection with matters which arose before his entrance into this state under such order.

If a person passes through this state while going to another state in obedience to a court order requiring him to attend and testify in a criminal action in that state or while returning therefrom, he shall not, while so passing through this state, be subject to arrest or the service of process, civil or criminal, in connection with matters which arose before his entrance into this state pursuant to such court order. (Act Apr. 11, 1935, c. 140, §3.)

9819-4. Interpretation of act.—This act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of the states which enact it. (Act Apr. 11, 1935, c. 140, §4.)

DEPOSITIONS

9832. Informalities and defects—Motion to suppress.

Suppression of deposition, held not prejudicial error. 181M217, 232NW1. See Dun. Dig. 422.

Bond was sufficiently identified in deposition of expert witness on value to make his testimony admissible. Ebacher v. F., 188M268, 246NW903. See Dun. Dig. 2715.

Act to provide for perpetuation of evidence of sales of pledged property. Laws 1931, c. 329, ante, §8359-1.

JUDICIAL RECORDS—STATUTES, ETC.

9851. Records of foreign courts.

Authenticated copy of defendant's record of conviction in another state, if under the same name, is prima facie evidence of identity. Op. Atty. Gen., Apr. 28, 1929.

9852-1. Courts to take judicial notice.—Every court of this state shall take judicial notice of the common law and statutes of every state, territory and other jurisdiction of the United States. (Act Mar. 24, 1939, c. 77, §1.)

The Uniform Judicial Notice of Foreign Law Act has been adopted by: Illinois, Indiana, Maine, Maryland, Minnesota, Montana, North Dakota, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Dakota.

9852-2. Courts may obtain information—how.—The court may inform itself of such laws in such manner as it may deem proper, and the court may call upon counsel to aid it in obtaining such information. (Act Mar. 24, 1939, c. 77, §2.)

9852-3. Determination to be made by court.—The determination of such laws shall be made by the court and not by the jury, and shall be reviewable. (Act Mar. 24, 1939, c. 77, §3.)

9852-4. Evidence.—Any party may also present to the trial court any admissible evidence of such laws, but, to enable a party to offer evidence of the law in another jurisdiction or to ask that judicial notice be taken thereof, reasonable notice shall be given to the adverse parties either in the pleadings or otherwise. (Act Mar. 24, 1939, c. 77, §4.)

9853. Printed copies of statutes, etc.

Mason's Minnesota Statutes 1927 were made prima facie evidence of the laws therein contained by Laws 1929, c. 6.

When a bill has passed both houses, is enrolled twice, and the enrolled bills are directly contradictory, in one particular, and it is necessary to determine which of the two acts the legislature intended to enact, the court may examine the legislative journals to ascertain the facts. 172M306, 215NW221.

9855. Statutes of other states.

Uniform Judicial Notice of Foreign Law Act. Laws 1937, c. 77.

All that is necessary to authenticate a state statute to be used in evidence is to have a copy certified by the Secretary of State under the great seal of the State. Op. Atty. Gen., Dec. 11, 1931.

DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE9859. Affidavit of publication.

In action by administrator to recover purchase price of land, oral testimony offered to show that in the verbal negotiations for the sale the land was described differently from the description in the deed, was properly rejected. Kehrer v. S., 182M596, 235NW386. See Dun. Dig. 3368(48).

9862. Official records prima facie evidence—Certified copies—etc.

Op. Atty. Gen., Apr. 14, 1932; note under §9880.

A judgment or order, in proceedings for appointment of a guardian of an incompetent person and taking from such person the management of his property, is admissible in evidence in any litigation whatever, but not conclusive, to prove that person's mental condition at time order or judgment is made or at any time during which judgment finds person incompetent. Champ v. B., 197M 49, 266NW94. See Dun. Dig. 3348.

Certified copies of record of mortgage foreclosure by advertisement in office of register of deeds are admissible in Iowa without complying with Mason's U. S. C. A., Title 28, §688. Bristow v. L., 221 Iowa904, 266NW808.

Records of state department of education and of public schools are open to inspection by any taxpayer. Op. Atty. Gen. (8511), Apr. 2, 1935.

UNIFORM BUSINESS RECORDS AS EVIDENCE ACT
The Uniform Business Records as Evidence Act has been adopted by: Idaho, Minnesota, Montana, North Dakota, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Vermont.

9870-1. Definitions.—The term "business" shall include every kind of business, profession, occupation, calling or operation of institutions, whether carried on for profit or not. (Act Mar. 24, 1939, c. 78, §1.)

9870-5. Inconsistent acts repealed.—All acts and parts of acts which are inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed. (Act Mar. 24, 1939, c. 78, §5.)

LOST INSTRUMENTS9871. Proof of loss.

Evidence to establish lost deed must be clear and convincing. 181M45, 231NW414.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS9876. Account books—Loose-leaf system, etc.

Uniform Business Records as Evidence Act. Laws 1939, c. 78.

Entries or memoranda made by third parties in the regular course of business under circumstances calculated to insure accurate and precluding any motive of misrepresentation, are admissible as prima facie evidence of the facts stated. It is no longer an essential of admissibility "that the witness should be somehow unavailable." 174M558, 219NW905.

A hospital chart was properly admitted as an exhibit. Lund v. O., 182M204, 234NW310. See Dun. Dig. 3357(95).

Corporate minute books held sufficiently identified by the testimony of one who was the auditor and a director of the corporation. Johnson v. B., 182M385, 234NW590. See Dun. Dig. 3345(16).

A letter written by one party to a contract, in confirmation of it, in performance of an undisputed term calling for such a letter, accepted without question and retained by the other party, held such an integration of the agreement as to exclude parol evidence varying or contradicting the writing. Rast v. B., 182M392, 235NW372. See Dun. Dig. 3368.

Books of account regularly and properly kept and maintained in one's business and identified to be books of original entries are admissible in evidence. Meyers v. B., 196M276, 264NW769. See Dun. Dig. 3346.

Account books kept by wife even if considered books of defendant do not conclusively impeach his testimony so as to compel findings according to all entries therein. Patterson v. R., 199M157, 271NW336. See Dun. Dig. 3345, 3410.

Ledger sheets of a bank were properly admitted in evidence, though they were not correct as to charging of certain checks, where cashier testified that they were otherwise correct and that he had omitted to enter the checks for his own purposes. Mendota State Bank v. R., 203M409, 281NW767. See Dun. Dig. 3346.

In action on fire policy covering stock of goods where only person who knew of sales and purchases was absent from trial, such person's reports of sales and purchases to another person and latter's notation thereof should not be considered where such notations were not understandable without explanation by the absent person. Foot v. Y., 286NW400. See Dun. Dig. 3346.

A party's books and records are admissible in evidence against him as admissions without statutory authentication necessary where he offers them in his favor. Wentz v. G., 287NW113. See Dun. Dig. 3345.

Books and records of a corporation the same as those of an individual may always be received in evidence against it as admissions. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3346.

9877. Entries by a person deceased, admissible when.

This section adds nothing to admissibility but declares only what foundation shall be laid. 174M558, 219NW 905.

9880. Minutes of conviction and judgment.

In abatement proceedings in district court, where one has been convicted of violation of city liquor ordinance, certified copies of records of municipal court are admissible. Op. Atty. Gen., Apr. 14, 1932.

9884. Certificate of conviction.

Op. Atty. Gen., Apr. 14, 1932; note under §9880.

9886. Inspection of documents.

An order granting or refusing inspection of books and documents in hands or under control of an adverse party is not appealable. Melgaard, 187M632, 246NW478. See Dun. Dig. 296a, 298(49).

An order for inspection of books and papers is an intermediate order and so not reviewable by certiorari. Asplund v. B., 203M533, 282NW473. See Dun. Dig. 1396.

9887. Bills and notes.—Indorsement, etc.

Promissory note could be introduced in evidence without proof of signature. 176M254, 223NW142.

Verified general denial is insufficient to require other proof than the note itself. 180M279, 230NW785.

Denial of execution of an instrument puts in issue its making, genuineness of signature, and delivery, where alleged signer is dead. O'Hara v. L., 201M618, 277NW232. See Dun. Dig. 1918.

Where plaintiff alleges a written instrument as an essential part of his case, execution of which is denied by answer, burden of proving execution is on plaintiff, and it is error to instruct jury that burden of proof is on defendant to show that instrument is a forgery or not genuine. Id. See Dun. Dig. 1918, 3468, 3469.

A note sued on its prima facie proof of its execution so as to make it admissible in evidence where answer is a verified general denial with no specific denial of execution by oath or affidavit. Christianson v. L., 203M533, 282NW273. See Dun. Dig. 1039.

9892. Federal census—Population.

Though ordinarily inmates of training schools are not to be counted as residents of county, county board should accept official returns of federal or state census as basis for determining whether or not a redistricting is required, even though inmates of such schools were counted as residents. Op. Atty. Gen. (798d), Oct. 15, 1935.

Certified copies of last federal census control for purpose of determining number of liquor stores. Op. Atty. Gen. (218G-13), May 17, 1939.

9895. Instruments, records thereof, and copies.

Certificates of births recorded under Laws 1870, c. 25, Laws 1887, c. 114, or Laws 1913, c. 579, are admissible in evidence as public records, but unregistered birth occurring before passage of Laws 1913, c. 579, cannot now be registered, and birth must be proven by other evidence, though birth occurring subsequent to that enactment may still be registered with full probative effect. Op. Atty. Gen. (225f), July 11, 1938.

9896. Abstracts of title to be received in evidence.

Introduction in evidence of an abstract without incorporating in settled case instruments referred to in abstract, which are claimed to create a defect or break in chain of title, is not effective to prove a breach of a covenant of seizin in a deed. Baker v. R., 199M148, 271 NW241. See Dun. Dig. 344.

9899. Fact of marriage, how proved.

Oral or written admissions of other party that marriage exists are admissible in evidence to show common-law marriage. Ghelin v. J., 186M405, 243NW443. See Dun. Dig. 5794(79).

Evidence of general repute or of cohabitation as married persons, or any other circumstantial or presumptive evidence from which facts may be inferred, was competent on question of common-law marriage. Welker's Estate, 196M447, 265NW273. See Dun. Dig. 5794.

Common-law marriage in Minnesota. 22MinnLawRev 177.

9902. Confession, inadmissible when.

If statement of accused be considered as confession of driving car while intoxicated, corroboration held sufficient. State v. Winberg, 196M135, 264NW578. See Dun. Dig. 2462.

9903. Uncorroborated evidence of accomplice.

Testimony of accomplices was sufficiently corroborated. 173M598, 218NW117.

Sufficiency of corroboration of accomplice. 176M175, 222NW906.

Where it is in fact present, it is not error to instruct that there is evidence to corroborate an accomplice. 176 M175, 222NW906.

A witness is an accomplice if he himself could be convicted as a principal or accessory. One who gives a bribe is not an accomplice to the crime of receiving a bribe. 180M450, 231NW225.

Evidence held not to show that a witness was an accomplice and the court properly refused to charge as to corroboration. 181M303, 232NW335. See Dun. Dig. 2457.

Submitting to the jury as a question of fact the question whether two witnesses for the state were accomplices held not error. State v. Leuzinger, 182M302, 234 NW308. See Dun. Dig. 2457(9).

Evidence corroborating testimony of accomplices held sufficient to support the conviction of bank officer for larceny. State v. Leuzinger, 182M302, 234NW308. See Dun. Dig. 2457(1).

In absence of request, instruction on necessity of corroboration of accomplice was properly omitted, under evidence. State v. Quinn, 186M242, 243NW70.

Evidence held not to show witnesses were accomplices. State v. Quinn, 186M242, 243NW70.

Testimony of accomplice held sufficiently corroborated connecting defendant with the crime of arson. State v. Padares, 187M622, 246NW369. See Dun. Dig. 2457.

Testimony of accomplice held sufficiently corroborated to sustain conviction of murder. State v. Jackson, 198M 111, 268NW924. See Dun. Dig. 2457.

Instructions relative to corroborating evidence to support testimony of an accomplice held to accurately state rule. State v. Tsiolis, 202M117, 277NW409. See Dun. Dig. 2457.

Corroboration must tend to convict person so charged and is insufficient if it merely shows commission of offense or circumstances thereof. State v. Scott, 203M56, 279NW832. See Dun. Dig. 2457.

Section requires corroboration other than testimony of another accomplice. Id.

Uncorroborated testimony of accomplices as to other crimes cannot be made basis of corroboration as to a separate offense for which a person is being tried. Id.

Failure of defendant to testify in his own behalf or to produce evidence to meet that furnished by accomplices could not be considered against him. Id.

Where defendant procured Arthur, 19 years old, to bring his friend Allen, 16 years old, to defendant's apartment, where he, in presence of Arthur, committed sodomy with Allen, and then with Arthur in presence of Allen, and was indicted for act with Allen, both boys being witnesses called by state, court charged correctly that Allen was an accomplice, but erred in charging that Arthur was not an accomplice as a matter of law. State v. Panetti, 203M150, 280NW181. See Dun. Dig. 2457.

In prosecution for forgery evidence held sufficient to corroborate testimony of an accomplice in issuance of fraudulent relief orders. State v. Stuart, 203M301, 281 NW299. See Dun. Dig. 2457.

9904. In prosecutions for libel—Right of jury.

Truth, a defense to libel. 16MinnLawRev43.

9905. Divorce—Testimony of parties.

Evidence held sufficient to establish willful desertion. Graml v. G., 184M324, 238NW683. See Dun. Dig. 2776.

COMMON LAW DECISIONS RELATING TO WITNESSES AND EVIDENCE IN GENERAL

See §§9870-1 to 9870-5, relating to laws of other states.

1. Judicial notice.

The courts recognize the fact that tuberculosis in its incipient stage is usually not an incurable malady. Eggen v. U. S. (CCA8), 58F(2d)616.

It is common knowledge that standard automobiles are held for sale by dealers for schedule prices, even when old or used cars are traded in. Baltrusch v. B., 183M470, 236NW924. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

It is matter of common knowledge that a sterilization operation upon a male properly done in due course effects sterilization. Christensen v. T., 190M123, 255NW620. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

Courts take judicial notice of topography of state. Erickson v. C., 190M433, 252NW219. See Dun. Dig. 3459.

It is common knowledge that recuperative sources differ very much in individuals even of same age and outward appearance. Howard v. V., 191M245, 253NW766. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

The court judicially knows that mail would ordinarily be received at Morris, Minn., one day after it was deposited in St. Paul, Minn. Devenney's Estate, 192M265, 256NW104. See Dun. Dig. 3456.

District court may take judicial notice of authority of particular municipal court. Untiedt v. V., 195M239, 262 NW568. See Dun. Dig. 3452.

Court cannot take judicial notice of practical construction of city charter. State v. Goodrich, 195M644, 264NW 234. See Dun. Dig. 3452.

It is a matter of common knowledge that hazards are created likely to lead to disastrous results where a driver suddenly swerves out of his traffic lane at a point where he has no opportunity of seeing what is approaching from other direction. Cosgrove v. M., 196M6, 264NW134. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

On appeal after second trial, evidence taken at first which is no part of record at second cannot be considered by judicial notice or otherwise. Taylor v. N., 196M22, 264NW139. See Dun. Dig. 3455.

It is well known that a river often, either suddenly or gradually, varies its course and flows to a greater or lesser extent within river base or valley. Lamprey v. A., 197M112, 266NW434. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

It is common knowledge that by reason of dry and hot summers, lakes in southern part of state suffered great lowering of the water level during years prior to 1935. Meyers v. L., 197M241, 266NW861. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

Court takes judicial notice of process of distributing bottled milk at retail. Franklin Co.-Op. Creamery Ass'n v. E., 200M230, 273NW809. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

It is common knowledge that speed of street cars is reduced on approaching street intersections. Geldert v. B., 200M332, 274NW245. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

It is common knowledge that industrial insurance is frequently written on lives of children of tender age without their knowledge and consent, and that in many instances group policies are written covering lives of all employees in industry without knowledge or consent of such employees, or at least some of them. Dight v. P., 201M247, 276NW3. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

It is common knowledge that sidewalks are often laid and repaired by abutting owner after council has ordered them built or repaired. Nelson v. C., 201M305, 276NW234. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

Municipal court and supreme court on appeal must take notice of provisions of city charter. Prudential Co. v. C., 202M70, 277NW351. See Dun. Dig. 3452.

Since the Declaration of Independence, the law of Great Britain and its dependencies is the law of a foreign country and, like any other foreign law, is a matter of fact with which the courts of this country cannot be presumed to be acquainted or take judicial notice of, but which must be pleaded and proved. Greer v. P., 202 M633, 279NW568. See Dun. Dig. 3453.

It is common knowledge that large department stores suffer so from depredations of shoplifters that private detectives are necessary for protection. Hallen v. M., 203M349, 281NW291. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

It is common knowledge that nothing imposes upon a motorist the duty of extra care more than icy or slippery roads. Luce v. G., 203M470, 281NW812. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

Court will take judicial notice that a snow fence of peculiar character used only by railroads constitutes a warning of presence of a railroad crossing. Massmann v. G., 204M170, 282NW815. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

It cannot be concluded as a matter of common or judicial knowledge that deflation of a left rear tire could not have caused swerving to right, whether sudden or otherwise. Lestico v. K., 204M125, 283NW122. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

It is common knowledge that persons other than those in need of poor relief are upon payrolls of government on its various projects under PWA, CWA, and WPA. Blackwell, 285NW613. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

Judicial notice is to be taken with caution and every reasonable doubt as to propriety of its exercise in a given case should be resolved against it. State v. Clousing, 285NW711. See Dun. Dig. 3448.

Admission by demurrer does not extend to facts of which court will take judicial notice. Id. See Dun. Dig. 7520.

Ordinance requiring a fee of $25 per year for license to engage in business of plastering held not so unreasonable as to justify judicial notice of the fact. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

It is common knowledge that raisers and feeders of livestock for slaughter often borrow money in order to carry on and can do so only by giving as security chattel mortgages upon stock being raised and fed for the market. Mason City Production Cr. Ass'n v. S., 286NW 713. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

It is common knowledge that short turns cannot safely be negotiated with an automobile going at 35 miles an hour. Wenger v. V., 286NW885. See Dun. Dig. 3451.

Court will not take judicial notice of health regulations. Op. Atty. Gen. (225b-4), May 21, 1935.

2. Presumptions and burden of proof.

There is a presumption that death was not suicidal. New York L. I. Co. v. A. (CCA8), 66F(2d)705.

In action against city for flooding of basement, court properly charged that burden of proving that storm or cloud burst was an act of God or vis major was upon the defendant. National Weeklies v. J., 183M150, 235 NW905. See Dun. Dig. 7043.

Consumer of bread discovering a dead larva in a slice, which she did not put in her mouth must prove the baker's negligence, and court properly directed verdict for the defendant. Swenson v. P., 183M289, 236NW310. See Dun. Dig. 3782, 7044.

It will be presumed that county officials proceeded to spread and collect taxes as was their duty under statute, though record in suit does not so show. Republic I. & S. Co. v. B., 187M373, 245NW615. See Dun. Dig. 3435.

Absence of proof on a vital issue loses case for party having burden of proof on that issue, no matter how difficult or impossible it is to procure evidence on that particular point. McGerty v. N., 191M443, 254NW601. See Dun. Dig. 3469.

There is a presumption that public officers will conform to the constitution. Moses v. O., 192M173, 255NW 617. See Dun. Dig. 3435.

In absence of evidence to contrary, presumption that letter properly addressed and posted with proper postage affixed is received in due course controls. Devenney's Estate, 192M265, 256NW104. See Dun. Dig. 3445.

Legislature is presumed to have acted with knowledge of all facts necessary to make an intelligent classification of persons and things. Board of Education v. B., 192M367, 256NW894. See Dun. Dig. 1677 to 1679.

A public official is entitled to presumption that in performance of his duties he acts in good faith according to his best judgment. Kingsley v. P., 192M468, 257NW 95. See Dun. Dig. 3435.

In action for death in elevator shaft to which there were no eye witnesses, sentence at end of charge "with reference to the presumption of due care that accompanied the plaintiff, the burden of overcoming that presumption rests upon the defendant" held not prejudicial in view of accurate and more complete instruction in body of charge. Gross v. G., 194M23, 259NW557. See Dun. Dig. 7032(99).

In action for death by falling into elevator shaft to which there was no eye witness, it is not absolutely necessary for plaintiff to prove precise manner in which deceased came to fall into pit, even if any of alleged negligent acts or omissions have been proven, which reasonably may be found to be cause of fall. Id. See Dun. Dig. 7043.

Presumption of due care by decedent yields to credible undisputed evidence. Faber v. H., 194M321, 260NW500. See Dun. Dig. 2616, 7032.

Circumstantial evidence may rebut presumption of due care of a deceased. Id. See Dun. Dig. 2616, 7032.

One who loses his life in an accident is presumed to have exercised due care for his own safety, but presumption may be overcome by ordinary means of proof that due care was not exercised. Oxborough v. M., 194M335, 260NW305. See Dun. Dig. 3431, 7032.

Guardian of insane insured person who escaped from insane asylum and disappeared cannot continue to receive disability benefits upon a mere presumption of continuance of life and continuance of disability, but must show actual physical existence and continuing disability as required by policy. Opten v. P., 194M580, 261NW197. See Dun. Dig. 3438.

Doctrine of res ipsa loquitur does not apply in malpractice case and opinion evidence of medical experts is necessary to make out a case. Yates v. G., 198M7, 268 NW670. See Dun. Dig. 3469.

Presumption of regularity on part of public officers must necessarily prevail until there is some credible evidence to show failure in that regard. Judd v. C., 198M 590, 272NW577. See Dun. Dig. 3436.

One who purchases a municipal warrant is charged with notice of law under and by virtue of which such obligation is issued. Id. See Dun. Dig. 6718.

Those dealing with a municipal corporation in matter of public improvements are conclusively presumed to know extent of power and authority possessed by municipal officers with whom they deal. Id.

Public business transacted on a legal holiday is legal in case of necessity, existence of which will be presumed in absence of a showing to contrary. Ingelson v. O., 199M422, 272NW270. See Dun. Dig. 3433, 3436, 9064.

Presumption is that services rendered by a child to a parent in home are gratuitous. Anderson's Estate, 199 M588, 273NW89. See Dun. Dig. 7307.

Acts by a municipal officer in charge of a department are presumed to be in performance of official duties when acts relate to matters confided to his control and supervision. Theisen v. M., 200M515, 274NW617. See Dun. Dig. 3435.

A police officer is presumed to know the law and that it is malfeasance to assist gamblers. State v. Raasch, 201M158, 275NW620. See Dun. Dig. 2448a.

Neither fraud nor undue influence is presumed, but must be proved, and burden of proof rests upon him who asserts it. Berg v. B., 201M179, 275NW836. See Dun. Dig. 4035.

Pleadings generally determine upon whom is burden of proof, and party who has burden of proof carries it throughout the trial. O'Hara v. L., 201M618, 277NW232. See Dun. Dig. 3468, 3469.

Where plaintiff alleges a written instrument as an essential part of his case, execution of which is denied by answer, burden of proving execution is on plaintiff, and it is error to instruct jury that burden of proof is on defendant to show that instrument is a forgery or not genuine. Id. See Dun. Dig. 1918, 3468, 3469.

Right of defendant to have plaintiff bear burden of proof is one of substance and not of form, and denial of right in instructions is prejudicial error. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3468.

Burden of proof extends to every fact essential to recovery. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3468, 3469.

Burden of establishing causal connection between violation of statutes and injury is upon plaintiff. Fredrickson v. A., 202M12, 277NW345. See Dun. Dig. 7043.

There is a strong presumption that that which has never been done, cannot by law be done at all. First Minneapolis Trust Co., 202M187, 277NW899. See Dun. Dig. 8952.

Proposition that where a fact of a continuous nature is shown to exist at a certain time, there is a presumption of law that it continues to exist, at least for a reasonable time, does not apply to question of title and possession of a diamond ring, which is too often transferred by gift, pledge, or otherwise. Exsted v. O., 202M 644, 279NW559. See Dun. Dig. 3438.

Presumptions are indulged to supply place of facts and are never allowed against ascertained and established facts which annul them. Luce v. G., 203M470, 281NW812. See Dun. Dig. 3430.

It is to be assumed that one lawfully appointed special police officer to serve process for a justice of peace and effectively performing duties for many years qualified in accordance with law. Russ v. K., 285NW472. See Dun. Dig. 3435.

Inferences in findings of fact may properly be drawn from absence of person at trial. Foot v. Y., 286NW400. See Dun. Dig. 3444.

Distinction between risk of non-persuasion and duty of producing evidence. 15MinnLawRev600.

3. —Death from absence.

After seven years' unexplained absence without tidings, absentee is presumed to be no longer living, but there is no presumption that he died at any particular time during seven years, and death at an earlier date than expiration of period must be proved like any other fact by party asserting it. Carlson v. E., 188M43, 246NW 370. See Dun. Dig. 3434.

Where absentee's marital relations were extremely unhappy, he was insolvent and a drunkard, and had announced his intention of seeking employment elsewhere, jury was not justified in finding death occurred prior to expiration of seven-year period. Id.

There is a rebuttable common-law presumption that a person no longer lives who has disappeared and has not been heard from for a period of seven years, and in such a case burden is upon one who seeks to show death prior to expiration of seven-year period, and such a death must be shown by evidence that preponderates in favor of that solution of the disappearance. Sherman v. M., 191M607, 255NW113. See Dun. Dig. 3434.

In a disappearance case, circumstantial evidence may justify a finding of death prior to expiration of seven-year period even in absence of a showing that absentee was exposed to a specific peril at time he was last heard from. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3434.

To give rise to presumption of death after seven year's unexplained absence, such absence must be from last usual place of abode or resort. White v. P., 193M263, 258 NW519. See Dun. Dig. 3434, 4844.

Under presumption of death after seven years unexplained absence, there is no presumption as to specific time of death, and it is not filing of petition for administration or rendering of decree that fixes date of death as of any particular time. Hokanson's Estate, 198M423, 270NW689. See Dun. Dig. 3434.

Presumption of death from seven years' absence. 19 MinnLawRev777.

4. —Suppression of evidence.

When a party fails to produce an available witness who has knowledge of facts and whose testimony presumably would be favorable to him, and fails to account for his absence, jury may indulge a presumption or draw an inference unfavorable to such party. M & M Securities Co. v. D., 190M57, 250NW801. See Dun. Dig. 3444.

Where relevant evidence is within control of a party whose interest it would be to produce it and he fails to produce it without a satisfactory explanation, jury may infer that evidence if produced would have been unfavorable to such party. Vorlicky v. M., 287NW109. See Dun. Dig. 3444.

5. Admissibility in general.

Circumstantial evidence is as competent in a personal injury action as in any other. Sears, Roebuck & Co. v. P. (USCCA8), 76F(2d)243.

Evidence of violation of a statute or ordinance which has not been enacted for the protection of the injured person is immaterial. Mechler v. M., 184M476, 239NW605. See Dun. Dig. 6376.

A witness for plaintiffs was not permitted to testify to declarations of the living grantor impugning the grantees' title, except insofar as such testimony refuted or impeached that given by such grantor. Reek v. R., 184M532, 239NW599. See Dun. Dig. 3417.

Testimony of incidents of dissatisfaction and animosity between grantors and grantees months and years prior to the execution of the deed was properly excluded as immaterial and too remote to affect the issue of duress. Reek v. R., 184M532, 239NW599. See Dun. Dig. 2348.

Testimony to show that one defendant had said plaintiff was crazy or foolish was hearsay as to the other defendant, and irrelevant, under the pleadings, as to both defendants. Kallusch v. K., 185M3, 240NW108. See Dun. Dig. 3286, 3287.

It was not error to exclude an opinion of witness already testified to by him. Supornick v. N., 190M19, 250NW716. See Dun. Dig. 10317.

Plaintiff, in libel, could not testify as to effect of publication on his wife and daughter caused by treatment accorded them, or their conduct and actions in his presence or oral statements to him detailing remarks and conduct of others resulting in their humiliation. Thorson v. A., 190M200, 251NW177. See Dun. Dig. 5555.

It was not error to admit in evidence fragments of bone from plaintiff's skull where there was controversy as to character of injury to her head. Johnston v. S., 190M269, 251NW525. See Dun. Dig. 3258.

In action on life policy, court did not err in sustaining objection to question to defendant's district manager "do you know whether or not the company would have issued the policy to Mr. D., if it had known that he had been a bootlegger," such manager having nothing to do with approval of applications. Domco v. M., 191M215, 253NW538. See Dun. Dig. 3254.

Where offered testimony is competent and material, its reception is not discretionary with court; there being no objection raised as to proper foundation being laid. Taylor v. N., 192M415, 256NW674. See Dun. Dig. 9728.

Cost of manufacture or production of property is generally held admissible as tending in some degree to establish value. Fryberger v. A., 194M443, 260NW625. See Dun. Dig. 2576a.

In action for death of pedestrian killed while leading horses upon shoulder of paved highway, witnesses who examined locus in quo morning of next day were properly permitted to testify as to tracks of horses along shoulder and across the ditch about where accident occurred, and as to skid tracks of a car, it being sufficient that such foundation as situation permits be laid. Raths v. S., 195M225, 262NW563. See Dun. Dig. 3313.

Court did not err in sustaining an objection to appellant's inquiry as to plaintiff's occupation, for her attorney had in open court admitted it to be what appellant desired to prove. Paulos v. K., 195M603, 263NW913. See Dun. Dig. 3230.

Negative testimony is competent and of probative value and weight to be given thereto is for jury, considering all circumstances surrounding witnesses at time of accident. Polchow v. C., 199M1, 270NW673. See Dun. Dig. 3238.

In trial of claim by daughter against estate of mother for services rendered after 1925, contents of letter written by mother to daughter in 1918, requesting her to come home and help with farm work because sons had gone to war, were properly excluded as irrelevant and of no probative value. Anderson's Estate, 199M588, 273NW 89. See Dun. Dig. 7307.

Issue being as to cubic contents of dikes, engineers' field notes recording center heights of dikes were properly admitted as evidence, where there was testimony showing uniform slope or angle of repose of embankments so that measurement of height showed also base. Barnard-Curtiss Co. v. M., 200M327, 274NW229. See Dun. Dig. 3229.

Where there was no offer of proof that plaintiff knew or could know that defendant was under influence of intoxicants while she was his passenger, offer of proof to show that defendant was under influence of intoxicating liquors several hours after accident did not go far enough. Vondrashek v. D., 200M530, 274NW609. See Dun. Dig. 9717.

Where court held oral promise to will property void under statute of fraud, but allowed claimant reasonable value of services rendered decedent, there was no error in excluding evidence of value of estate as bearing on reasonable value of services, decedent's promise not being made with reference to value or to amount of services to be rendered by claimant. Roberts' Estate, 202M 217, 277NW549. See Dun. Dig. 2567, 3247.

In action by city employee against street railway company for personal injuries, evidence in regard to workmen's compensation received by plaintiff was properly excluded. Peterson v. M., 202M630, 279NW588. See Dun. Dig. 9033.

Questions asked plaintiff's wife with obvious purpose of arousing sympathy of jury by showing that she was in bad health should have been excluded and answers stricken. Ross v. D., 203M321, 281NW76. See Dun. Dig. 3228.

In action for damages for personal injuries to a boy burned by electricity when taking hold of a cable which came in contact with a high power line, court properly permitted plaintiff to show customary practice of insulating non-current metallic wires on power poles that came within reach of person standing on the ground. Schorr v. M., 203M384, 281NW523. See Dun. Dig. 7049.

Evidence before administrative tribunals. 23MinnLaw Rev68.

6. Admissions.

Oral or written admissions by claimant that she is single and not married are admissible against her on question of common-law marriage. Ghehn v. J., 186M405, 243NW443. See Dun. Dig. 6794(79).

Admissions made by an insured after he had transferred to plaintiff's all of his interest in fire insurance policies, covering certain property against loss by fire, are not admissible in evidence to establish defense that insured willfully set fire to property. True v. C., 187M 636, 246NW474. See Dun. Dig. 3417.

Statements of physicians furnished by beneficiary to insurer as part of proof of death of insured are receivable in evidence as admissions of beneficiary. Elness v. P., 190M169, 251NW183. See Dun. Dig. 3410.

Statements made by a physician in proof by husband of his disability, three months before his death, nature of which wife did not know, were not admissible against her when she sued on policy as a beneficiary. Id.

A statement made to plaintiff by a mere clerk or salesman in store, immediately after an accident, as to position of a platform, did not bind store or establish any negligence on its part. Smith v. E., 190M294, 251NW265. See Dun. Dig. 3410.

Plaintiff suing employee of garage who at time of accident was driving car of third person on his own private business held not estopped in garnishment to claim liability of liability insurers of such third party by allegations in main action that defendant was operating automobile in business of garage. Barry v. S., 191M71, 253NW14. See Dun. Dig. 3208.

Effect of an admission by one representing a corporation depends upon whether individual has authority to speak for it. Peterson v. S., 192M315, 256NW308. See Dun. Dig. 3418.

Admissions, if material, are always admissible. Hork v. M., 193M366, 258NW576. See Dun. Dig. 3408.

While it is ordinarily improper for either court or counsel to read pleadings to jury, yet, even without its introduction in evidence, an admission in a pleading may be read to jury in argument for adversary of pleader. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3424, 9783a.

Allegation in answer of an agreement between deceased and husband of claimant, under which parties lived as one family on farm of deceased, cannot be construed into an admission of a contract between deceased and claimant to pay her for services rendered him as a member of household. Empenger v. E., 194M219, 259NW 795. See Dun. Dig. 3424.

Bank suing co-owners of a farm as partners on a note, purporting to be signed by them as a partnership, was not thereafter estopped in a suit by a third party to claim that there was no partnership and that certain co-owner was alone liable on theory of having signed under an assumed name, first action being settled and there being no findings or judgment. Campbell v. S., 194M502, 261NW1. See Dun. Dig. 3218.

Pleadings of a party may be offered in evidence by his opponent to show admission. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3424.

Where complaint in another action was introduced to impeach witness, it was proper to permit attorney who prepared complaint to testify that witness had not made statement alleged in complaint and that allegations therein were of attorney's own origination. Tri-State Transfer Co. v. N., 198M537, 270NW684. See Dun. Dig. 3424.

An admission of a town in its pleading does not preclude interveners from that town to prove that facts are to contrary in proceeding involving validity of organization and boundaries of a city. State v. City of Chisholm, 199M403, 273NW235. See Dun. Dig. 3424.

Court erroneously refused to permit cross-examination of landowner to show that he had made verified application for reduction of taxes on claim that land had been assessed in amounts exceeding true and actual value. Minneapolis-St. Paul Sanitary Dist. v. F., 201M 442, 277NW394. See Dun. Dig. 3424a.

Sworn statement of car dealer in registration of a car that it was absolute owner of a car in possession of salesman was a persuasive admission that would credit claim that salesman was absolute owner under a conditional sales contract, as affecting liability of sales agency arising out of negligence. Flaugh v. E., 202M 615, 279NW582. See Dun. Dig. 3408.

Admissions of a grantee in a deed as to intention of parties are admissible. Papke v. P., 203M130, 280NW183. See Dun. Dig. 3306, 3409.

Copies of a party's income tax statements are admissible as admissions of the facts therein stated. Wentz v. G., 287NW113. See Dun. Dig. 3408.

A party's books and records are admissible in evidence against him as admissions without statutory authentication necessary where he offers them in his favor. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3345.

7. Declarations.

In action against railroad for death of brakeman, conductor's report to railroad and statements by him at investigation following accident as to facts thereof, inconsistent with his testimony, held admissible as substantive evidence of declarations of his principal. Chicago, St. P. M. & O. R. Co. v. K., (CCA8), 102F(2d)352.

Once a trust is established the subsequent acts or declarations of the donor are not admissible in derogation of the title of the beneficiary. Bingen v. F., (CCA8), 103F(2d)260, rev'g (DC-Minn), 23FSupp958.

Statements of good health in applications for reinstatement of government insurance and for drivers license are statements against interest and admissible in action on war risk policy for total disability. Walsh v. U. S., (DC-Minn), 24FSupp877.

Income tax returns made by deceased in which he reported that he was single were admissible as declarations against interest in a proceeding by one against his estate as common-law wife. Ghelin v. J., 186M405, 243NW443. See Dun. Dig. 5794(79).

Declarations made to hospital and in application for passport and in the execution of a void holographic will were not admissible as evidence of pedigree or as part of res gestae in a controversy by one claiming a common-law marriage with decedent. Ghelin v. J., 186M405, 243NW443. See Dun. Dig. 5794(79).

Declarations in denial of marriage made by other party to third persons not in presence of or acquiesced in by person claiming common-law marriage are inadmissible. Ghelin v. J., 186M405, 243NW443.

One claiming common-law marriage cannot introduce in evidence her own declarations to third persons not in the presence of or acquiesced in by other party. Ghelin v. J., 186M405, 243NW443. See Dun. Dig. 3287a, 5794(79).

In action under "double indemnity" provision of life policy, court erred in permitting physician to testify to statement made by deceased relative to past occurrences resulting in injury. Strommen v. P., 187M381, 245NW632. See Dun. Dig. 3292.

In workmen's compensation case, explanation by deceased of cause of his limping was incompetent. Bliss v. S., 189M210, 248NW754. See Dun. Dig. 3300.

In workmen's compensation case, history given physician called to treat deceased employee, insofar as it included recitals of past events, was inadmissible. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3301.

Trial court properly ruled out evidence of declarations of deceased grantor whose deed had been placed in escrow to effect that contract under which it had been so placed had been abandoned and that he had resumed possession and control of premises. Merchants' & Farmers' State Bank v. O., 189M528, 250NW366.

Exclusion from evidence of a self-serving letter written by plaintiff was proper. Pettersen v. F., 194M265, 260NW225. See Dun. Dig. 3287a.

Where, in action for personal injuries caused by moving a one-man street car on a curve so that plaintiff was struck by swinging rear end of car while he was seeking passage thereon, a passenger on car stated that she informed motorman-conductor of presence of plaintiff coming to car, it was error to exclude her following statement that plaintiff must "have gone the other way"; night being dark and rainy, and she being in a position for observation superior to that of motorman. Mardorf v. D., 196M347, 265NW32. See Dun. Dig. 3237.

Court properly excluded a self-serving paragraph in a letter. Kolars v. D., 197M183, 266NW705. See Dun. Dig. 3305a.

There was no error on accounting of guardian in admission of evidence as to a statement made by guardian, before his appointment, as to what fees he would charge, if appointed. Fredrick v. K., 197M524, 267NW473. See Dun. Dig. 3286.

Letter from a railroad claim department to a claim agent containing self-serving declarations held inadmissible. Marino v. N., 199M369, 272NW267. See Dun. Dig. 3286, 3287a.

Evidence as to conversations relating to a compromise or settlement, between parties to action and relating to one of issues to be litigated, is inadmissible. Schmitt v. E., 199M382, 272NW277. See Dun. Dig. 3425.

Statement of deceased that child would get what was coming to her was too ambiguous to support a finding that deceased intended that daughter should receive compensation for her services. Anderson's Estate, 199M588, 273NW89. See Dun. Dig. 7307.

In action by one claiming a parol gift of land from his father, court erred in excluding plaintiff's offer to explain why he stated in bankruptcy proceedings that he was only a tenant and not owner. Henslin v. W., 203M166, 280NW281. See Dun. Dig. 10351.

A party has a right to explain contradictory statements made by him which have been received in evidence. Id.

Declarations of an insured shortly before his death appearing to have been made in a natural manner and not under circumstances of suspicion concerning his plans and designs are admissible to show his condition of mind. Scott v. P., 203M547, 282NW467. See Dun. Dig. 3293.

Admissibility of extra-judicial confessions of third parties. 16MinnLawRev437.

Statements of facts against penal interests. 21MinnLawRev181.

8. Collateral facts, occurrences, and transactions.

In an action for fraud, where the value of the assets of a financial corporation at a given time is in issue, its record books and history, both before and after the time in question, may be examined and received as bearing upon such value at the time of the transaction involved. Watson v. G., 183M233, 236NW213. See Dun. Dig. 3247.

Where agreed price of automobile was in dispute, and it was seller's word against buyer's, trial court had a large discretion in admitting testimony of collateral matters tending to show which of the two conflicting stories is the more probable. Baltrusch v. B., 183M470, 236NW924. See Dun. Dig. 3228(52).

Competent evidence tending to show defendant's guilt is admissible even though it proves his participation in some other offense. State v. Reilly, 184M266, 238NW492. See Dun. Dig. 2459(53).

In action against city for damages growing out of car going through railing on bridge, held not error to exclude proof of other cars going on sidewalk on such bridge. Tracey v. C., 185M380, 241NW390. See Dun. Dig. 3253, 7052.

In action to recover installment upon land contract wherein defendant counter-claimed and sought to enjoin termination of contract by statutory notice on ground that conveyance and contract constituted a mortgage, court did not err in excluding verified complaint in action brought by defendant to enforce contract to convey other land made at same time. Jeddeloh v. A., 188M404, 247NW512. See Dun. Dig. 6155.

Where there is conflict in testimony of witnesses relevant to issue, evidence of collateral facts having direct tendency to show that statements of witnesses on one side are more reasonable is admissible, but this rule should be applied with great caution. Patzwald v. P., 188M557, 248NW43. See Dun. Dig. 3228(52).

In action to recover license fee from holder of gas franchise, evidence of practical construction of similar ordinance granting electricity franchise was admissible. City of South St. Paul v. N., 189M26, 248NW288. See Dun. Dig. 3405.

In action to recover for injuries received in a fall in defendant's salesroom, based on its alleged negligence in permitting waxed linoleum floor to become wet and sloppy, rendering it slippery and dangerous to users thereof, it was competent and material to prove that shortly after plaintiff slipped and fell thereon, another person slipped and almost fell at substantially same place. Taylor v. N., 192M415, 256NW674. See Dun. Dig. 3253.

Where so-called admission against interest of deceased person is not in respect to specific issue litigated, but rather indirectly or upon a collateral matter, evidence going to contradict or explain same should be admitted. Empenger v. E., 194M219, 261NW185. See Dun. Dig. 3233.

On issue of fraud, court properly admitted transactions between parties tending to prove that one was taking undue advantage of the other whenever he could. Chamberlin v. T., 195M58, 261NW577. See Dun. Dig. 3252.

In action for personal injuries received when slipping on floor in place of business, court erred in refusing to permit testimony of one of plaintiff's witnesses to effect that a short time after plaintiff had fallen witness entered same room and slipped and nearly fell at substantially same place. Taylor v. N., 196M22, 264NW139. See Dun. Dig. 3253.

In order to prove incompetency at time of a particular transaction, it is proper to show a subsequent adjudication of incompetency. Johnson v. H., 197M496, 267NW486. See Dun. Dig. 3438, 3440.

Evidence was properly admitted of other sales of stock with the same provision, for repurchase on demand, made with the knowledge and sanction of the president and officials of defendant. Thomsen v. U., 198M137, 269NW109. See Dun. Dig. 3253.

Where an important issue in automobile case was whether defendant and his witness were intoxicated, it was not error to allow defendant to show that unfitting conduct of witness resulted from injuries in accident, as against contention that defendant had no right to bring out fact that witness had been injured in accident. Tri-State Transfer Co. v. N., 198M537, 270NW684. See Dun. Dig. 3237a.

There can be no valid objection to defendant's bolstering his own case by making most of a matter partly developed by plaintiffs. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9799.

In action for injuries suffered by car owner when he attempted to enter car on request of garage mechanic while it was several feet from floor on hydraulic hoist, court did not err in receiving plaintiff's testimony that at a prior time he had at same mechanic's request safely entered same car on same hoist at same elevation. Bisping v. K., 202M19, 277NW255. See Dun. Dig. 3252, 3253.

Trial court has a large discretion in admitting evidence of collateral or similar matter to issues on trial, as an aid to jury, where, as to such issues, the oral testimony is in irreconcilable conflict. Id.

Witness was correctly permitted to state what particular fact caused her to remember testimony regarding her interview with owner of car when he called at her employer's garage where car was taken for repairs after accident. Neeson v. M., 202M234, 277NW916. See Dun. Dig. 3233.

In proceeding under workmen's compensation act for death of motorman suffering heat stroke, it was not error to exclude offer of proof that no other claim for heat stroke had been made against street railway during its long operation of its street cars by electricity. Ruud v. M., 202M480, 279NW224. See Dun. Dig. 3229.

Where there is no direct evidence of cause of death and finding of suicide or accident is an inference determined by probabilities of the evidence, practice or habit of insured in doing a certain act is relevant and admissible to support or rebut inferences suggested by evidence. Scott v. P., 203M547, 282NW467. See Dun. Dig. 3243.

Evidence that a person is of careful and prudent habits is inadmissible to prove that he was not negligent upon a particular occasion. Ryan v. L., 204M177, 283NW129. See Dun. Dig. 7051(99).

In automobile collision case court properly sustained objections to question to defendant as to whether in all of his driving he had ever had a collision with anybody. Id. See Dun. Dig. 7051(99).

In action to determine validity of ordinance requiring fuel dealers to carry liability insurance, court did not err in excluding evidence of certain persons engaged in such business that they had never had an accident. Sverker v. C., 204M388, 283NW555. See Dun. Dig. 3241.

Admissibility of evidence of a collateral fact depends upon whether it has a direct, logical tendency to prove or disprove facts in issue, and question is not so much a question of law as of sound, practical judgment to be determined with reference to facts of particular case. Laughren v. L., 285NW531. See Dun. Dig. 3252.

8 1/2. Mental operation, state of condition.
In libel case, it was competent for plaintiff to testify relative to his own mental suffering the cause and extent thereof. Thorsen v. A., 190M200, 251NW177. See Dun. Dig. 5555.

Where motive, belief or intention with which an act is done is material, a party may show fact directly by his own testimony. Henslin v. W., 203M166, 280NW281. See Dun. Dig. 3231.

A party in possession of land under parol gift may testify directly to the fact that he made improvements on the land and paid the taxes in reliance upon the gift. Id.

9. Agency.
While agency may be proved by the testimony of the agent as a witness, evidence of the agent's statements made out of court are not admissible against his alleged principals before establishing the agent's authority. Farnum v. P., 182M338, 234NW646. See Dun. Dig. 3410(36), 149(71).

One to whom another was introduced as vice-president of a corporation held entitled to testify as to his conversation to prove agency. National Radiator Corp. v. S., 182M342, 234NW648. See Dun. Dig. 149(77).

A prima facie case of agency is sufficient to authorize receiving in evidence a statement of the agent. State v. Irish, 183M49, 235NW625. See Dun. Dig. 241.

10. Hearsay.
Expressions of pain are admissible on the issue of physical disability, as against the objection of hearsay. Prochel v. U., (CCA8), 59F(2d)648. Cert. den., 287US658, 53SCR122. See Dun. Dig. 3292.

Testimony that deceased wife of decedent said that she had given plaintiff certain notes by having decedent husband endorse them over to plaintiff, held admissible as exception to hearsay rule. Quarfot v. S., 189M451, 249NW668. See Dun. Dig. 3291.

Repetition of signals between engineer and his fireman, when approaching crossing, where collision occurred, was hearsay and properly excluded. O'Connor v. C., 190M277, 251NW674. See Dun. Dig. 3286.

Purpose of hearsay rule, and its only proper use, is to exclude what otherwise would be testimony untested by cross-examination and unvouched for as to trustworthiness by oath. Lepak v. L., 195M24, 261NW484. See Dun. Dig. 3286.

Making of an alleged oral contract being within issues and relevant, it was prejudicial error to exclude as hearsay otherwise competent testimony of terms of such contract. Id.

In contest between two groups claiming to be heir of escheated estate, testimony of one of petitioners as to what he had learned from his father respecting death of a near relative was properly received, relating to a matter of family history. Gravunder's Estate, 195M487, 263NW458. See Dun. Dig. 3295.

Foundation being properly laid, hospital records were admissible against objection that they were hearsay. Schmidt v. R., 196M612, 265NW816. See Dun. Dig. 3357.

Certificate of undertaker was rightly excluded as of no probative force on issue tried—it being palpably hearsay of deputy coroner not a physician. Miller v. M., 198M497, 270NW559. See Dun. Dig. 3286.

Lost section and quarter corners may be proven by reputation. Lenzmeier v. E., 199M10, 270NW677. See Dun. Dig. 8010.

Upon issue of whether driver had consent of owner to operate at time and place an accident occurred, a witness who heard instruction of owner, given to operator at time latter took motor vehicle, may testify as to what they were for purpose of showing extent of consent given, and such instructions are not hearsay, but are part of issue of consent and admissible as original evidence. Patterson-Stocking, Inc. v. D., 201M308, 276NW 737. See Dun. Dig. 3287.

In action by car owner against garage for injuries received when plaintiff attempted to enter car on request of mechanic while it was elevated several feet upon hydraulic hoist, car tipping over, court did not err in excluding testimony that rules and instructions of garage corporation strictly prohibited any one from entering a car when elevated on a hoist, plaintiff having no knowledge of such rules or instructions. Bisping v. K., 202M 19, 277NW255. See Dun. Dig. 5839a.

That part of hearsay report of a crime commission was received when offered by plaintiff is not good reason for admitting another portion thereof later offered by plaintiff. Clancy v. D., 202M1, 277NW264. See Dun. Dig. 3237, 3286.

In action by candidate for city councilman against newspaper for libel, grand jury report, crime commission reports, and reports or resolutions of local associations, were inadmissible as hearsay. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3286.

Statements of facts against penal interests. 21Minn LawRev181.

11. Res gestae.

The statement of an employee, a city salesman soliciting orders, when in the course of his employment he entered the place of business of his employer near the close of his day's work, that he had fallen on the street as he came in, coupled with the statement that he was going home, was properly held competent as res gestae. Johnston v. N., 183M309, 236NW466. See Dun. Dig. 3300.

Statement of one defendant is admissible against her, but not against a co-defendant. Dell v. M., 184M147, 238 NW1. See Dun. Dig. 3421(83).

A statement of the plaintiff's client, the defendant Ada Marckel, to her father a few hours after it was claimed that a settlement was made of two causes of action brought by her against her father-in-law and co-defendant Amos Marckel, that she was to receive $10,000 was not a part of the res gestae and was not proof of a settlement nor of the receipt of money. Dell v. M., 184M 147, 238NW1. See Dun. Dig. 3300.

Defendant's talk and conduct near commission of offense was admissible in prosecution for driving while drunk. State v. Reilly, 184M266, 238NW492. See Dun. Dig. 3300.

Testimony of conversation between deceased wife and witness wherein wife complained of her husband's drinking was admissible as part of res gestae in action by husband for wrongful death of wife. Peterson v. P., 186 M583, 244NW68. See Dun. Dig. 3300.

Where one joint adventurer sold out to another a letter written by one of them to bank acting as escrow agent held admissible as res gestae. Mid-West Public Utilities v. D., 187M580, 246NW257. See Dun. Dig. 3300.

Statement of deceased employee to another employee that he had bumped his leg held admissible as part of res gestae. Bliss v. S., 189M210, 248NW754. See Dun. Dig. 3300.

Testimony as to the declaration of persons in possession of property tending to characterize their possession is admissible under res gestae doctrine. Pennig v. S., 189M262, 249NW39. See Dun. Dig. 3306.

In a collision of passenger train of one defendant with freight train of other defendant, where crossing of their roads was governed by an automatic signal system, there was no abuse of judicial discretion in excluding testimony of a declaration made by engineer of Great Northern to third parties, four or five minutes after collision; said engineer having fully testified to what he said and did prior to collision. O'Connor v. C., 190M277, 251NW674. See Dun. Dig. 3301.

Court did not err in refusing to permit plaintiff to testify to a statement he overheard his brother make more than half an hour after he set fire involved in action on fire policy. Zane v. H., 191M382, 254NW453. See Dun. Dig. 3301.

Plaintiff may not bolster up his case by testifying as to self-serving declarations made by him as a part of res gestae. Fischer v. C., 193M73, 258NW4. See Dun. Dig. 3305a.

Testimony of witness that driver of car made statement, "I just came from Rochester where I have been on business for the company," shortly after and at place of accident, was a recital of past events, not connected with accident, and was not a part of res gestae or competent to prove agency. Wendell v. S., 194M368, 260NW 503. See Dun. Dig. 3301.

Time element is sometimes considered in determining whether declarations are res gestae or narrative, but it is not considered controlling. Jacobs v. V., 199M572, 273 NW245. See Dun. Dig. 3300.

As affecting admissibility of statement of employee as a part of the res gestae, consideration should be given to facts that at time statement was made there was an entire lack of motive for the employee to misrepresent, as where injury appeared so insignificant that employee could not have given a thought to subsequent application for compensation. Id.

In workmen's compensation cases a liberal policy should be followed in admission of declarations as part of res gestae in order that purpose of compensation act be carried out. Certain statements made by deceased approximately forty-five minutes after accident held properly admitted as part of res gestae. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3301.

In action for injuries to building due to fall of water tank in process of repair, statement of dying helper that building was rotten, shoring held, and tank was full of water, was inadmissible as a conclusion rather than statement of fact. Pacific Fire Ins. Co. v. K., 201M500, 277NW226. See Dun. Dig. 3311.

A res gestae statement is inadmissible if it is a mere conclusion rather than statement of fact. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3300.

Whether statements following an accident are res gestae is primarily for the trial court. Noesen v. M., 204M 233, 283NW246. See Dun. Dig. 3300, 3301.

With evidence of agency in record, declarations of agent in course of principal's business become admissible against latter as part of res gestae. Schlick v. B., 286NW 356. See Dun. Dig. 3300.

Res Gestae. 22MinnLawRev391.

11%. Articles or objects connected with occurrence or transaction.

Where car owner's son was in car, at time companion was killed, and disappeared same night, it was error not to receive such son's hat in evidence as a circumstance bearing upon who was driving car. Nicol v. G., 188M69, 247NW8. See Dun. Dig. 3258.

It was not error to receive in evidence a revolver found in path plaintiff's brother took when fleeing from scene of arson, in action on fire policy. Zane v. H., 191 M382, 254NW453. See Dun. Dig. 3258.

Use of a human skull on examination of an expert witness on question whether insured committed suicide or accidentally was shot was not improper. Backstrom v. N., 194M67, 259NW681. See Dun. Dig. 3258.

It was not improper for defendant to mark statements belonging to plaintiff as defendant's exhibits, and then offer all of it in evidence where offer was made only for purpose of getting into record exception to court ruling that entire statement was not admissible. Tri-State Transfer Co. v. N., 198M537, 270NW684. See Dun. Dig. 9721a.

In action for injuries from electricity it was not error to receive in evidence shoes and trousers worn by injured person, showing holes burned by current, even though counsel in open court admitted that plaintiff received burns. Schorr v. M., 203M384, 281NW523. See Dun. Dig. 2996, 3258.

In laying foundation for receipt in evidence of object claimed to have been cause of accident, it is ordinarily enough that witness can identify such object. Lestico v. K., 204M125, 283NW122. See Dun. Dig. 3258.

12. Documentary evidence.

See §§9852-1 to 9852-7 relating to business records.

The record books of banks and financial corporations subject to the supervision of the superintendent of banks, when shown to be the regular record books of such a corporation, are admissible in evidence without further proof of the correctness of the entries therein. Watson v. G., 183M233, 236NW213. See Dun. Dig. 3346.

A letter from the defendant to the plaintiff, written after suit was brought, was not erroneously received when the objection came from the defendant. Harris v. A., 183M292, 236NW458. See Dun. Dig. 3409.

Recital in lieu bond as to making of note and mortgage was evidence of such fact in action on bond. Danielski v. P., 186M24, 242NW342. See Dun. Dig. 1730a, 3204b.

In unlawful detainer against lessee, admission in evidence of unsigned pamphlet containing plaintiff's plan or organization, held error. Oakland Motor Car Co. v. K., 186M455, 243NW673. See Dun. Dig. 3363.

Records of life insurance company made and kept in usual course of business were admissible in evidence, and sufficiency of foundation therefor was for trial court. Schoonover v. P., 187M343, 245NW476. See Dun. Dig. 3346, 4741.

Court did not err in holding that there was sufficient foundation for introduction of a photograph of place of accident. Kouri v. O., 191M101, 253NW98. See Dun. Dig. 3363.

Matter of sufficiency of foundation for introduction of photograph is largely for trial court. Id.

Testimony of life insurance agent that he was familiar with instructions given him by insurer, was sufficient foundation for introduction in evidence of instruction that agents should not furnish claim blanks unless policy is in force. Kassmir v. P., 191M340, 254NW446. See Dun. Dig. 3244, 3251.

Unsigned writing of deceased widow that daughter was to have all property after her death, held inadmissible as evidence of contractual obligation, there being nothing to indicate that writing was complete or that it would not contain much more if and when completed. Hanefeld v. F., 191M547, 254NW821. See Dun. Dig. 1734.

Record of affidavits filed pursuant to §9648 was competent proof of taxes and insurance paid subsequent to foreclosure sale by holder of sheriff's certificate. Young v. P., 192M446, 256NW906. See Dun. Dig. 3355.

In a death action wherein it appeared mother of decedent was sole beneficiary, mortality tables were admissible to show life expectancy of the mother, even if not admissible to show life expectancy of decedent, who was in ill health. Albrecht v. P., 192M557, 257NW377. See Dun. Dig. 3353.

Mortality tables were admissible in evidence in action for death though evidence indicated that decedent had a weak heart. Id.

It was error to receive in evidence a copy of a police report made by officer called to the scene of accident. Duffey v. C., 193M358, 258NW744. See Dun. Dig. 3348.

Certain accommodation notes were so connected with testimony relating to note involved in action by accommodation maker for damages for breach of agreement to hold him harmless that evidence touching thereon was properly received. Cashman v. B., 195M195, 262NW216. See Dun. Dig. 3237.

Court was justified in holding that foundation for introduction of hospital records was properly laid by stipulation and conduct. Schmidt v. R., 196M612, 265NW816. See Dun. Dig. 3357.

There is no parallel between hearsay reports of police officers and hospital charts kept by an attending nurse for information of physician in charge of patient. Draxten v. B., 197M511, 267NW498. See Dun. Dig. 3286.

There was no error in permitting injured plaintiff's doctor to refresh his recollection from hospital chart identified by him as one made during his treatment of her at hospital. Id. See Dun. Dig. 10328.

Certificate of undertaker was rightly excluded as of no probative force on issue tried—it being palpably hearsay of deputy coroner not a physician. Miller v. M., 198M497, 270NW559. See Dun. Dig. 3348.

Falsity of allegations in a reply may be established by affidavit. Berger v. F., 198M513, 270NW589. See Dun. Dig. 7664.

A pleading in one action may be used as an admission against same party in another action. Tri-State Transfer Co. v. N., 198M537, 270NW684. See Dun. Dig. 3424.

Admission of hospital chart in evidence was proper under doctrine enunciated in Schmidt v. Riemenschneider 196M612, 265NW816. Taaje v. S., 199M113, 271NW109. See Dun. Dig. 3357.

When signatures are proved it is presumed that an affidavit was actually sworn to by person who signed as affiant, and if proof does not embrace a fact necessary to negative taking of affidavit, presumption will save it. Siewert v. O., 202M314, 278NW162. See Dun. Dig. 133.

Instruction as to purpose, weight, and use to be made of mortality tables in connection with death of a person in ill health held correct. Paine v. G., 202M462, 279NW 257. See Dun. Dig. 3354.

Admission of mortality tables in evidence was not error, although deceased was not in normal health at time he was killed. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3353.

In proceedings under Workmen's Compensation Act to recover compensation for death of motorman suffering a heart stroke, it was not error to exclude from evidence records in office of vital statistics showing a high death rate due to extreme heat during the month involved. Ruud v. M., 202M480, 279NW224. See Dun. Dig. 3347.

In action for rent against one claiming that he was only acting as agent for his son in renting store containing stock of goods purchased from third person, bills advertising a sale of stock purchased, circulated by a certain company of which defendant was president, were admissible in evidence as bearing on defendant's interest in business. Gates v. H., 202M610, 279NW711. See Dun. Dig. 3232.

In action for injuries caused by nuisance at oil station wherein issue was whether defendant was in possession of station, court did not err in admitting in evidence defendant's application to city authorities to operate the station as well as a stamp used on sales slips at station, indicating or characterizing manner of conducting station. Noetzelman v. W., 204M26, 283NW481. See Dun. Dig. 3347.

12%. Photographs.

Where defendant was permitted to introduce four photographs of two street cars after they had been jacked up to permit release of occupants of automobile, it could not be said that it was error to admit one photograph introduced by plaintiff and described by witness as "the way it looked when they were jacked up." Luck v. M., 191M503, 254NW609. See Dun. Dig. 3233.

There was no error in receiving in evidence for purposes of illustration and comparison an X-ray of pelvis of a female two years older than injured plaintiff, X-rays of whose pelvis went in evidence without objection. Draxten v. B., 197M511, 267NW498. See Dun. Dig. 3260, 9728.

12%. Best and secondary evidence.

A naturalization certificate lost or destroyed by fire, may be proved by oral testimony where there is no court record of its issuance and no better evidence available. Miller v. B., 190M352, 251NW682. See Dun. Dig. 3277, 3389.

Testimony of a witness of his own knowledge as to rental income of certain property was erroneously stricken as not best evidence, though he had books of account which were available. State v. Walso, 196M525, 265NW345. See Dun. Dig. 3263.

Admissibility of parol evidence to prove a divorce. 16 MinnLawRev711.

12%. Demonstrations and experiments in court.

There was no error in permitting a sheriff to demonstrate by lying on floor position and posture of deceased's body when found. Backstrom v. N., 194M67, 259NW681. See Dun. Dig. 3255.

Use of skeleton and hammock to demonstrate nature of injuries held not prejudicial. Timmerman v. M., 199M 376, 271NW697. See Dun. Dig. 9722.

In proceeding to obtain compensation for death of motorman suffering heat stroke, refusal to admit in evidence experiment made with car operated by employee in respect to heat discharged in motorman's cab from operation of car, made several months after injury in question, was matter resting largely in discretion of commission to admit or reject. Bruce v. M., 202M480, 279NV 224. See Dun. Dig. 3246.

13. Parol evidence affecting writings.

Where from letter itself, in which writer expressed an intention to give certain mortgages to plaintiff, intention of writer could not be determined with reasonable certainty, evidence of surrounding circumstances at time of writing and subsequent acts with respect to the mortgagor was admissible to show intention of alleged settlor of trust at time of writing. Bingen v. F., (DC-Minn), 23FSupp958. Rev'd on other grounds, (CCA8), 103 F(2d)260.

Receipts on checks can be explained by parol evidence, unless receipt embodies a contract. Wunderlich v. N., (DC-Minn), 24FSupp640.

Where a contract uses the phrase to give a deed and "take a mortgage back," parol evidence is admissible in aid of construction in determining whose note was to be secured by such mortgage. Spielman v. A., 183M282, 236NW319. See Dun. Dig. 3397.

Parol evidence held inadmissible to vary the terms of a written contract. Nygaard v. M., 183M388, 237NW7. See Dun. Dig. 3368.

Parol evidence is inadmissible to show that a legislative bill was passed at a time other than that stated in the legislative journals. Op. Atty. Gen., May 1, 1931.

In replevin where defendants counterclaimed for damages for misrepresentations of plaintiff and defendants' own agent, parol evidence was inadmissible to vary or destroy the written stipulation and release by which the cause of action against the agent was settled and joint tort-feasors discharged. Martin v. S., 184M457, 239NW 219. See Dun. Dig. 3368.

An unconditional bond of a corporation, agreeing to pay to the holder therein named a stated sum of money on a fixed date, lawfully issued and sold for full value, cannot be varied by parol. Heider v. H., 186M494, 243NW 699. See Dun. Dig. 3368.

It was not error to exclude an offer of proof to effect that, upon failure of a lessee to effect joint insurance, lessor took out insurance payable to himself only, purpose being to show a modification of lease and substitution of another tenant. Wilcox v. H., 186M500, 243NW 711. See Dun. Dig. 3375.

Oral testimony is inadmissible to show that parties meant is an unambiguous written contract. Burnett v. H., 187M7, 244NW254. See Dun. Dig. 3407.

Oral evidence was admissible to show true consideration for assignments of contract and notes reciting consideration as "value received." Adams v. R., 187M209, 244NW810. See Dun. Dig. 3373.

Parol evidence is inadmissible to show that indorsement on negotiable instrument was intended to be "without recourse." Johnson Hardware Co. v. K., 188M109, 246NW603. See Dun. Dig. 1012, 3368.

Extrinsic evidence is not admissible as bearing on intent of insurer where policy is unambiguous. Wendt v. W., 188M488, 247NW569. See Dun. Dig. 3368.

Parol evidence is inadmissible to show that a promissory note, which by its express terms is payable on demand, is not payable until happening of a condition subsequent. Flozda v. J., 188M612, 248NW215. See Dun. Dig. 3374n(92).

Assignment of rents to mortgagee reciting consideration of one dollar contained no contractual consideration and real consideration could be shown. Flower v. K., 189M461, 250NW43. See Dun. Dig. 3373.

Parol evidence is admissible to show fraud in inducement of a written contract. National Equipment Corp. v. V., 190M596, 252NW444. See Dun. Dig. 3376.

To be justified in setting aside a written contract and holding it abandoned or substituted by a subsequent parol contract at variance with its written terms, evidence must be clear and convincing, a mere preponderance being insufficient. Dwyer v. I., 190M616, 252NW 837. See Dun. Dig. 1774, 1777.

Even if it be supposed that a signed writing is but partial integration of a contract, a parol, contemporaneous agreement is inoperative to vary or contradict the terms which have been reduced to writing. McCraith v. D., 191M489, 254NW623. See Dun. Dig. 3392.

Proof of promissory fraud, inducing a written contract, cannot be made by representations contradictory of the terms of the integration. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3376, 3827.

Oral agreement of real estate mortgagee to extend time of payment to certain date in consideration of mortgagor giving chattel mortgage on crops to secure payment of taxes was not void as an attempt to vary terms of written instrument, which instrument was within statute of frauds. Hawkins v. H., 191M543, 254 NW809. See Dun. Dig. 8855.

Parol evidence rule prohibits proof of a contemporaneous parol agreement in contradiction of terms of writing. Crosby v. C., 192M98, 255NW853. See Dun. Dig. 3368.

Although the name of plaintiff's husband was signed to conditional sales contract by which plaintiff procured an automobile from dealer, parol evidence was admissible to show that she was real purchaser of car. Saunders v. C., 192M272, 256NW142. See Dun. Dig. 3371.

It being admitted that the conditional sales contract was blank as to price and terms when signed by the vendee, oral testimony was admissible, as between the parties to the contract, to prove that the price and terms thereafter inserted by the vendor were not those agreed to or authorized. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3370.

Cause of action being for fraud and deceit, parties were not restricted by rule that parol evidence may not be received to vary or contradict written contracts. Nelson v. M., 193M455, 258NW828. See Dun. Dig. 3376.

Intent of parties to a written instrument must be gathered from words thereof after consideration of whole instrument, and evidence as to intent should not be resorted to unless there is some uncertainty or ambiguity arising from words used. Towle v. F., 194M 520, 261NW5. See Dun. Dig. 3399(84).

In action on promissory note by payee, defendant could testify and defend on ground that it was orally agreed that diamond for which note was given could be returned if not satisfactory to woman. Hendrickson v. B., 194M528, 261NW189. See Dun. Dig. 3377.

Parol evidence is admissible to show that an instrument was delivered to take effect and become operative only on happening of a certain contingent future event. Id.

A parol contemporaneous agreement is inoperative to vary or contradict terms which have been reduced to writing. Id.

On a claim against his father's estate for services rendered, it was not error to admit evidence of value of a farm deeded to son upon payment by son's wife of an amount much less than value of farm, upon issue of whether or not there was a promise to pay for such services in addition to value of farm over amount so paid. Delva's Estate, 195M192, 262NW209. See Dun. Dig. 3232.

Conversations prior to or at time deed was given in which father indicated his intentions in regard to claimant, were admissible. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3403.

Evidence that a note was given by the son to the father long after the deed was given was admissible as showing a situation inconsistent with the claimed debt. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3232.

Printed "Rural Service Agreement" entered into between farmer and power company was incomplete and did not prevent plaintiff from showing by oral evidence a collateral agreement as to price to be paid by defendant for transfer to it of service line and time when payment was to be made. Bjornstad v. N., 195M439, 263NW289. See Dun. Dig. 3392.

Rule forbids adding to instrument by parol where writing is silent, as well as varying it where it speaks. Taylor v. M., 195M448, 263NW537. See Dun. Dig. 3368.

Before evidence of oral agreement is received to supplement a written contract it must appear that at least three conditions exist: (1) oral agreement sought to be proved must in form be a collateral one; (2) it must not contradict express or implied provisions of written contract; and (3) it must be one that parties would not ordinarily be expected to embody in writing and it must not be so clearly connected with principal transaction as to be part and parcel of it. Id.

Question whether proper interpretation of contract, in light of surrounding circumstances and purposes of parties, admits parol evidence to prove a collateral oral agreement, is for court. Id.

A document acknowledging receipt of bank stock is construed to be contractual in character and not a mere receipt, and not subject to parol proof of additional contract by defendants to purchase stock not mentioned therein. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3391.

Parol evidence held admissible with regard to pledging of stock to secure debt of a third person. Stewart v. B., 195M543, 263NW618. See Dun. Dig. 3385.

Parol evidence rule was not violated by resort to extrinsic circumstances to show that apparent wife rather than real wife was beneficiary under a life insurance trust. Soper's Estate, 196M60, 264NW427. See Dun. Dig. 3368.

Where a person signs a promissory note in lower left-hand corner thereof, and two makers sign in lower right-hand corner, below whose signatures there is a vacant line, and mortgage securing note recites that note is signed by two makers who signed in lower right-hand corner, there is an ambiguity and parol evidence is admissible to show whether he signed as a maker. Union Cent. Life Ins. Co. v. F., 196M260, 264NW786. See Dun. Dig. 3406.

Parol evidence rule has no application where witness testified as of his own knowledge as to facts also set forth in books of account. State v. Walso, 196M525, 265 NW345. See Dun. Dig. 3368.

A mere oral promise or agreement to pay a promissory note, having a fixed due date, in installments before due, is invalid, and cannot be shown to vary terms of note for purpose of showing usury, where no usury has actually been taken or received by lender. Blindman v. I., 197M93, 266NW455. See Dun. Dig. 3382.

Plaintiff is not in position to prove an error on admission in evidence of conversations between parties at time contract and deed were made, having opened up that subject himself. Priebe v. S., 197M453, 267NW376. See Dun. Dig. 3237, 3368.

From written documents and facts and circumstances shown to exist at time of transaction, whereby one bank contracted with another bank, there appears sufficient ambiguity in written instruments to admit oral evidence on question of plaintiff's duty to exercise efforts and diligence to collect and secure bills receivable. State Bank of Monticello v. L., 198M98, 268NW918. See Dun. Dig. 3406.

Where individual in business organizes a corporation to take it over, transferring all his assets, subject to his liabilities and obligations, corporation becomes obligated to fulfill written contract of individual whereby he employed a superintendent for business for a term of years, and fact that corporation assumed employment contract may be proven by parol. McGahn v. C., 198M328, 269NW830. See Dun. Dig. 3395.

Acceptance and recording of deed acted as waiver of any rights that might have existed by virtue of claimed prior contract for the latter. Berger v. F., 198M513, 270NW589. See Dun. Dig. 10019.

Where a deed absolute in form is alleged to have been given for purpose of securing a loan, court will look through form of the transaction to determine its character and will regard it merely as a mortgage if parties so intended. Nitkey v. W., 199M334, 271NW873. See Dun. Dig. 6155.

Whether deed absolute is mortgage will be ascertained from written memorials of transaction and all attendant facts and circumstances, although documents evidencing transaction make a prima facie case for what they purport to be. Id.

Parol testimony will be admitted to explain meaning of word other than that meaning generally accepted only when proof shows a uniform use of word in particular business in a sense entirely different from its still generally prevailing signification. Franklin Co-Op. Creamery Assn. v. E., 200M230, 273NW809. See Dun. Dig. 3368.

A release of damages, plain and unambiguous, cannot be shown by parol to be other than what it purports to be on its face. Ahlsted v. H., 201M82, 275NW404. See Dun. Dig. 3391.

It is not contradicting terms of a bill of sale or conveyance to prove by parol that it was intended to transfer title merely as security. Holmes v. L., 201M44, 275NW416.

Registration of a motor vehicle does not establish and determine title to a vehicle registered, and parol evidence is admissible to show that title is different than that appearing from registration. Bolton-Swanby Co. v. O., 201M162, 275NW855. See Dun. Dig. 3390.

Report of sale filed by dealer with secretary of state may be varied and contradicted by parol evidence to show true ownership of vehicle referred to in report. Id.

Where promissory notes executed by a partnership and surviving partners were "payable out of funds to be received from S. and M. matters", parol evidence was admissible to show meaning of "S. and M. matters." Selover v. S., 201M562, 277NW205. See Dun. Dig. 3369.

Parol evidence is admissible to show that a contract not under seal, delivered by maker to party in whose favor it runs, was not intended to be operative as a contract from its delivery, but only on happening of some future contingent event, though that be not expressed by its terms. Minar Rodelius Co. v. L., 202M149, 277NW523. See Dun. Dig. 3377.

Extrinsic evidence or parol testimony may be received to disclose a latent ambiguity as to identity of a legatee or beneficiary in a will, and same sort of evidence is admissible to remove ambiguity disclosed. Peterson's Estate, 202M31, 277NW529. See Dun. Dig. 10260.

Absent fraud or mistake, parol evidence is inadmissible to show that words used in a lease had some other and different meaning than writing portrayed. Jennison v. P., 202M338, 278NW517. See Dun. Dig. 3368.

An oral "explanation" of meaning of clause in a contract, made at time of its execution, is inadmissible if it destroys that which is written. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3369.

Where alleged title in a party appears to be part of an arrangement between the parties for purposes other than bona fide ownership by person ostensibly holding the title, trier of fact may look through form to substance of transaction and say that semblance of ownership is not the reality. Flaugh v. E., 202M615, 279NW582. See Dun. Dig. 4167A.

Admissions of a grantee in a deed as to intention of parties are admissible. Papke v. P., 203M130, 280NW183. See Dun. Dig. 3306, 3409.

Rule that written agreement may not be varied or added to parol evidence of antecedent or contemporaneous negotiations is one not merely of evidence but is one of substantive law, and rule applies in equity as well as in law. Seifert v. M., 203M415, 281NW770. See Dun. Dig. 3369.

Mortgagor giving grant to mortgagee and making him a mortgagee in possession could not be shown to create a trust based on constructive fraud where evidence necessary to entitle mortgagor to recovery of rents and profits would violate parol evidence rule. Id. See Dun. Dig. 9915, 9916.

Where decision hinges upon oral evidence of that which statute of frauds and statute of wills require to be in writing, oral evidence to establish facts claimed must be clear, unequivocal, and convincing. Ives v. P., 204M142, 283NW140. See Dun. Dig. 3368.

Whether application for life insurance policy was readable, held not matter for expert testimony. First Trust Co. v. K., (USCCA8), 79F(2d) 48.

In action for damages for sale to plaintiff of cows infected with contagious abortion, testimony of farmers and dairymen, familiar with the disease and qualified to give an opinion, should have been received. Alford v. K., 183M158, 235NW903. See Dun. Dig. 3327(47), 3335(58).

An expert accountant, after examination of books and records and with the books in evidence, may testify to and present in evidence summaries and computations made by him therefrom. The foundation for such evidence is within the discretion of the court. Watson v. G., 183M233, 236NW213. See Dun. Dig. 3329.

In malpractice case, questions to plaintiff's expert as to what the witness would do and as to what kind of a cast he would use in treating the plaintiff, not based on any other foundation, should not be permitted to be answered. Schmit v. E., 183M354, 236NW622. See Dun. Dig. 7494.

In malpractice case, court erred in permitting plaintiff's witness to testify as to what stand or action certain medical associations had taken in reference to the right of a physician to testify in a malpractice case. Schmit v. E., 183M354, 236NW622. See Dun. Dig. 7494.

Expert witness in malpractice case should not have been permitted to testify as to degrees of negligence, to state that certain facts, assumed to be true on plaintiff's evidence, showed that plaintiff was highly negligent, very negligent in his treatment. Schmit v. E., 183M354, 236NW622. See Dun. Dig. 7494.

In action for death in automobile collision, opinions of plaintiff's medical experts that injuries received in collision where primary cause of death were properly admitted. Kieffer v. S., 184M205, 238NW331. See Dun. Dig. 3326, 3327.

Determination as to which of two successive employers was liable for occupational blindness held to be determined from conflicting medical expert testimony. Farley v. N., 184M277, 238NW485. See Dun. Dig. 3326(36), 10398.

Whether a witness has qualified to give an opinion as to the value of housework is largely for the trial court's discretion or judgment. Anderson's Estate, 184M560, 239NW602. See Dun. Dig. 3313(76).

The record discloses a sufficient qualification of a witness to testify as to the market value of automobile. Quinn v. Z., 184M583, 239NW302. See Dun. Dig. 3335, 3336.

It was not error to sustain an objection to a question to a physician as to whether he found in examining plaintiff any symptoms of senility. Kallusch v. K., 185M3, 240NW108. See Dun. Dig. 3326, 3328.

The opinions of expert witnesses are admissible whenever the subject of inquiry is such that inexperienced persons are unlikely to prove capable of forming a correct judgment upon it without such assistance. Tracey v. C., 185M380, 241NW390. See Dun. Dig. 3325.

Where conditions at place of automobile collision, because of darkness, were such that it was impossible for witness to describe same so as to enable jury to determine visibility of objects, it was not error to permit witness to express opinion as to whether he would have seen a certain object had it been there. Olson v. P., 185M571, 242NW283. See Dun. Dig. 3315.

Expert may properly be asked to assume fact, asserted by opposing party, to be true, and then give opinion as to whether or not such fact would produce result contended for by such party. Milliren v. F., 185M614, 242NW290. See Dun. Dig. 3337.

Medical expert may give opinion as to accidental and resultant injury causing premature delivery of child. Milliren v. F., 185M614, 242NW290. See Dun. Dig. 3327.

Medical expert may properly give reasons for opinion expressed as to cause of death. Milliren v. F., 185M614, 242NW290. See Dun. Dig. 3327.

Proper foundation held laid for admission of opinion of physician as to cause of death. Milliren v. F., 185M614, 242NW546. See Dun. Dig. 3325.

For want of sufficient foundation, it was error to receive in evidence testimony of thirteen year old boy as to speed of defendant's car. Campbell v. S., 186M293, 243NW142. See Dun. Dig. 3313.

In framing hypothetical questions to expert to give an opinion as to reasonable value of attorney's services, question was proper if it embraced facts which evidence might justify jury in finding, even though it did not assume all of testimony of plaintiff to be true. Lee v. W., 187M659, 246NW25. See Dun. Dig. 3337.

It is legitimate cross-examination to inquire of a witness, giving opinion evidence as to damage, concerning his relations with litigant for whom he testifies, and amount of compensation to be paid him as a witness. State v. Horman, 188M252, 247NW4. See Dun. Dig. 3342.

Objections were properly sustained to questions calling for conclusions of witnesses. Clancy v. D., 202M1, 277NW264. See Dun. Dig. 3311.

Where it appeared in record that husband of witness had owned and operated an automobile for 12 years, it could not be said that witness did not have some knowledge of speed of traveling automobiles. Shuster v. V., 203M76, 279NW841. See Dun. Dig. 3322a.

Industrial commission did not err in excluding as conclusion of witness testimony that injured employee was not able to hoe some corn he had planted, or walk, or lift a pail. McGrath v. B., 203M326, 281NW73. See Dun. Dig. 3311.

It was not error to receive in evidence testimony of a witness who did not see the collision as to speed of the defendant's automobile a second or two before accident and at a point a block from place of collision. Spencer v. J., 203M402, 281NW879. See Dun. Dig. 3322a.

Opinion evidence as to value of a mother's work and care to her three year old son by a person familiar with facts was admissible. Olstad v. F., 204M118, 282NW694. See Dun. Dig. 3322.

Testimony of witness who has observed facts of which he speaks is not open to attack as a mere conclusion, if in essence it is a narration of fact. Lestico v. K., 204M125, 283NW122. See Dun. Dig. 3311.

Statement of experienced foreman as to cause of accident was a statement of fact and not a mere conclusion. Noesen v. M., 204M233, 283NW246. See Dun. Dig. 3315.

Owner of a stock of merchandise could not testify to its market value where he had no knowledge of stock which another had purchased in job lots, and from which sales had been made by such other. Foot v. Y., 286NW400. See Dun. Dig. 3322.

16. Weight and sufficiency. Neither court nor jury may credit testimony positively contradicted by physical facts. Liggett & Myers Tob. Co. v. D. (CCA8), 66F(2d)678.

Testimony in conflict with the physical facts and scientific principles is lacking in all probative force. Jacobson v. C. (CCA8), 66F(2d)688.

Where evidence is equally consistent with two hypotheses, it tends to prove neither. P. F. Collier & Son v. H. (USCCA8), 72F(2d)625. See Dun. Dig. 3473.

Evidence held not to sustain a holding that defrauded vendees had received any valid extension of time of payment, or that they had accepted favors from defendants such as to prevent recovery. Osborn v. W., 183M205, 236NW197. See Dun. Dig. 10100(65).

The evidence sustains the finding that the defendant's intestate promised to give the plaintiff his property upon his death in consideration of services rendered and to be rendered himself and his wife, and that services were rendered. Simons v. M., 183M525, 237NW413. See Dun. Dig. 8789a(21).

Trier of fact cannot arbitrarily disregard a witness' testimony which is clear, positive and unimpeached, and not improbable or contradictory. First Nat. Bank v. V., 187M96, 244NW416. See Dun. Dig. 10344a.

Testimony of a disinterested and unimpeached witness may not be disregarded. Allen v. P., 192M469, 257NW84. See Dun. Dig. 10344a.

Credibility and weight of testimony is peculiarly for the jury and in absence of substantial error, court will not interfere. State v. Chick, 192M539, 257NW280. See Dun. Dig. 2477, 2490.

Where plaintiff's entire case for recovery of substantial damages for personal injuries depended upon testimony of medical expert who testified that he treated plaintiff for injuries supposed to have been sustained in spring of 1930, and thereafter complaint was amended to conform to proof showing that accident occurred in November 1930, and medical witness was not recalled, there was no evidence to sustain recovery of damages awarded. Neuleib v. A., 193M248, 258NW309. See Dun. Dig. 2591.

A verdict of a jury upon specific questions of fact submitted to them in an equity action is as binding on court as a general verdict in a legal action, and it is subject to same rules as to setting aside for insufficiency of evidence. Ydstie's Estate, 195M501, 263NW447. See Dun. Dig. 415.

Plaintiff is not entitled to have his case submitted to jury with but a scintilla of evidence to support his allegations. Carney v. F., 196M1, 263NW901. See Dun. Dig. 9764.

Uncontradicted testimony of an unimpeached witness given with apparent fairness, not containing within itself contradictions or inherent weakness or improbabilities and not shown by other circumstances to be false, cannot be disregarded by jury or court. Cogin v. I., 196M493, 265NW315. See Dun. Dig. 9764.

No credence need be given to testimony of a witness who knowingly testifies falsely as to a material fact. Segerstrom v. N., 198M298, 269NW641. See Dun. Dig. 10345.

Credible uncontradicted and unimpeached evidence cannot be disregarded although given by interested witnesses. Ewer v. C., 199M78, 271NW101. See Dun. Dig. 10344a.

Where defendant rented a hall on third floor of its building to company in order that latter might display its wares, and also furnished chairs for occasion, and a chair collapsed, doctrine of res ipsa loquitur is not applicable, since chair was not under control of defendant. Szyca v. N., 199M99, 271NW102. See Dun. Dig. 3431.

Rule that where admitted physical facts disprove existence of alleged fact upon which cause of action depends, there can be no recovery, does not apply where alleged fact disproved is not one upon which cause of action depends. Lacheck v. D., 199M519, 273NW366. See Dun. Dig. 3227b.

Proof of plaintiff's cause of action is not in equilibrium merely because defendant contradicts it and claims that it was caused in some manner other than claimed by plaintiff. Benson v. N., 200M445, 274NW532. See Dun. Dig. 3473.

Weight of evidence is not determined by number of witnesses. Id. See Dun. Dig. 10343a.

Credible, uncontradicted, and unimpeached testimony cannot be disregarded, even though given by an interested witness. Krahmer v. V., 201M272, 276NW218. See Dun. Dig. 3473.

Though a parol modification of a written contract must be proved by clear and convincing evidence, test of "clear and convincing" proof has to do with character of testimony itself and not number of witnesses from whom it comes. Butterick Pub. Co. v. J., 201M345, 276NW 277. See Dun. Dig. 1774.

Unequivocal and uncontradicted testimony of one witness held to be clear and convincing quality necessary to prove parol modification of written contract. Id.

Testimony by persons who listened for them that statutory signals were not given by train, held, sufficient to make question of negligence one for jury despite positive testimony by others that whistle was blown and bell rung. Doll v. S., 201M319, 276NW281. See Dun. Dig. 3238.

Causal connection between unlawful act and injury cannot be established by testimony which is conjectural and speculative. Fredrickson v. A., 202M12, 277NW345. See Dun. Dig. 7047.

Number of witnesses does not establish weight of evidence and a verdict may be based upon testimony of a single witness. State v. Hanke, 202M47, 277NW364. See Dun. Dig. 10344.

Verdict may not be founded on mere speculation. Collings v. N., 202M139, 277NW910. See Dun. Dig. 3473.

It is for jury to determine weight of evidence and to choose between conflicting inferences. Paine v. G., 202M 462, 279NW257. See Dun. Dig. 9707.

Circumstantial evidence need not exclude every reasonable conclusion other than that arrived at by jury. Id. See Dun. Dig. 3234, 9707.

Plaintiff seeking to recover damages for negligence upon circumstantial evidence must establish connection as cause between alleged negligence and her injury by circumstances something more than consistent with her theory of case. Reasonable minds must be able to conclude that theory of plaintiff outweighs and preponderates over other theory though it need not exclude every reasonable conclusion other than that contended for or arrived at by the jury. Smock v. M., 203M265, 280NW 851. See Dun. Dig. 3234, 3473.

Opinions founded upon expert knowledge in many cases go directly to main issue and may be only form of evidence by which issue can be determined. Golden v. L., 203M211, 281NW249. See Dun. Dig. 3326.

Evidence of fraud in procuring a signature to a paper at one time, even if true, is not proof that signature to other papers at other times were procured by fraud. Bowen v. W., 203M289, 281NW256. See Dun. Dig. 3252.

Even though testimony of a witness is without extraneous contradiction, it need not be believed by a jury where other circumstances in evidence are such as to discredit it. Weinstein v. S., 204M189, 283NW127. See Dun. Dig. 10344a.

Inherent weakness in uncontradicted evidence for affirmative of issue held sufficient to support negative finding by triers of fact. Spies v. S., 284NW887. See Dun. Dig. 3469.

Proof of crime in a civil proceeding. 13MinnLawRev 556.

16 1/2. Examination of witnesses.

In action for injuries received in collision of automobile and two street cars, court did not err in permitting motorman after recess of court to testify on cross-examination as to conversation with conductor, relative to his stated desire to change his testimony as to one fact. Luck v. M., 191M503, 254NW609. See Dun. Dig. 9715.

In action by passenger for injuries in collision between car and truck, court did not err in sustaining objection to question to driver of car on cross-examination as to whether there was anything to prevent him turning around on the street and going back, there being no testimony of any intention to turn around at that place. Erickson v. K., 195M623, 262NW56. See Dun. Dig. 10317.

Leading questions are proper when the testimony sought is merely preliminary to matters in dispute. Lestic v. K., 204M125, 283NW122. See Dun. Dig. 10317.

Where testimony of witnesses was inconsistent and in many respects unbelievable it was proper to permit cross-examination of witness as to collateral matters to test credibility. Foot v. Y., 286NW400. See Dun. Dig. 10317.

There was no error in refusal to allow will contestants to recall a witness after he had testified that he had fully related conversation which he had had with sister who was charged with having used undue influence. Osborn's Estate, 286NW306. See Dun. Dig. 10321.

Cross-examination of character witnesses as to having heard of particular acts of misconduct. 15MinnLaw Rev240.

17. Impeachment of witnesses.

The plaintiff's case depends upon evidence elicited from defense witnesses, the impeachment of such witnesses on other matters does not bar recovery, on theory that testimony of discredited witnesses must be rejected in toto. Chicago, St. P. M. & O. R. Co. v. K., (CCA8), 102F (2d)352.

Evidence brought out on cross-examination of one of defendant's witnesses, after plaintiff had rested, which was competent for the purpose of impeaching the witness, but related to a matter not in issue under the pleadings, and not presented as a part of plaintiff's case, goes only to the credibility of such witness. Buro v. M., 183M518, 237NW186. See Dun. Dig. 3237a.

An unverified complaint in a previous action by this plaintiff against this and another defendant, charging them both with negligence, was admissible against plaintiff for the purpose of impeachment. Bakkensen v. M., 184M274, 238NW489. See Dun. Dig. 3424.

Where attempted impeaching evidence was contained in writing of witness, writing should have been produced and shown to him. Milliren v. F., 186M115, 242 NW546. See Dun. Dig. 10351.

Impeaching testimony concerning statement by witness held improperly stricken out as lacking foundation. Newton v. M., 186M439, 243NW684. See Dun. Dig. 10351.

Where plaintiff testified that damage to his automobile was $625, it was error to reject defendant's offer to prove on cross-examination that plaintiff had estimated and stated his damages to be $450. Flor v. B., 189M131, 248NW743. See Dun. Dig. 3342.

Where state's main witness has by her answer taken prosecuting attorney by surprise, there was no abuse of judicial discretion in permitting state to cross-examine witness and impeach her as to truth of answer given. State v. Bauer, 189M280, 249NW40. See Dun. Dig. 10356 (8).

Answer of a witness to an impeaching question is not evidence of a substantive fact and can be used only to discredit witness impeached. Christensen v. P., 189M548, 250NW363. See Dun. Dig. 10351g, n. 82.

Where an admitted accomplice in crime is called by state as a witness and, on cross-examination, statements contradicting his testimony for state are introduced, state may introduce other statements, made by witness at about same time, consistent with his testimony on direct examination. State v. Lynch, 192M534, 257NW278. See Dun. Dig. 10356.

In automobile accident case where police officer admitted that plaintiff had left scene of accident before he arrived, which was contrary to his statement on direct examination that he saw people involved in the collision, police report made by officer was not admissible to impeach his testimony by showing that report stated that it was based upon what others had seen at accident had told officer. Duffey v. C., 193M358, 258NW744. See Dun. Dig. 10351.

Evidence that plaintiff collected money on insurance carried on life of decedent and that she received at his death personal and real property from his estate, although not to be considered in arriving at amount of damages for his wrongful death, was admissible in refutation of testimony of plaintiff that she had no money with which to redeem certain real property of her husband sold under foreclosure. Wright v. E., 193M609, 259NW75. See Dun. Dig. 2570b, 7193, 7202.

In cross-examination of an impeaching witness, statements made by principal witness in connection with or in explanation of contradictory statements elicited are admissible. Tri-State Transfer Co. v. N., 198M537, 270NW 684. See Dun. Dig. 10348.

Where complaint in another case was introduced to impeach witness, court did not err in permitting attorney who drew complaint to testify as to what witness actually told him rather than to limit his testimony to relating what witness did not tell him. Id.

Third parties may be called to prove that purportedly contradictory statement used to impeach witness was never made. Id. See Dun. Dig. 10351.

In impeachment, form or nature of contradictory assertion is immaterial, and it may be oral or written. Id.

Any statement contradictory to one made by a witness on the stand may be used for purpose of impeachment, but impeached witness may always explain away the inconsistent. Id.

Where witness admitted fact sought to be shown by certain testimony and exhibits, same were not admissible for purposes of impeachment. Jache's Estate, 199M177, 271NW452. See Dun. Dig. 10348.

While a party may not impeach a witness called by him or his own testimony, he may contradict such testimony, especially narration of events, by other witnesses; but it was not error of which defendant may complain to exclude offer of evidence to contradict testimony of defendant given understandingly of a fact peculiarly within his own knowledge and apparently honestly and in good faith. Vondrashek v. D., 200M530, 274NW609. See Dun. Dig. 10351, 10356.

Facts tending to show that a witness is interested in result of litigation or is biased in favor of, or against, one of parties, or has a motive for favoring one party against the other, may be shown, as bearing on weight to be given testimony. Timm v. S., 203M1, 279NW754. See Dun. Dig. 3232.

It is competent to show that a witness was under influence of liquor at time of occurrences which he assumes to relate, in order to show impairment of his powers of observation and recollection. Olstad v. F., 204M118, 282NW694. See Dun. Dig. 10343a.

It was error to exclude evidence of previous statements contradictory to those made by a witness upon trial. Id. See Dun. Dig. 10351.

A party is not bound by evidence of a witness to extent that he may not show a different state of facts by other witnesses. Keough v. S., 285NW809. See Dun. Dig. 10356.

Whether claim of surprise, made in support of a litigant's request for leave to impeach his own witness, is well founded in fact, is a preliminary question for the trial judge, and his ruling thereon will not be disturbed unless abuse of discretion appears. State v. Saporen, 285NW898. See Dun. Dig. 10356.

There is no occasion for impeachment of a witness by party who calls him unless to caller's surprise he testifies adversely on some material point; and then impeachment must be confined to subject matter of surprising adverse statement. Id. See Dun. Dig. 10356.

Only function of impeaching testimony (consisting of previous contradictory statement of a witness) is negative, extrajudicial statement so used not being affirmative evidence of facts. Id. See Dun. Dig. 10351.

18. Striking out evidence.

Where plaintiff testified on direct examination that insured would have been plowing all afternoon in order to finish; and on cross-examination, she testified that her husband had told her that he was going to finish plowing that afternoon, denial of defendant's motion to strike answer given on direct examination as hearsay was not error. Pankonin v. F., 187M479, 246NW14. See Dun. Dig. 3290.

It was error to deny a motion to strike opinion evidence which cross-examination had shown to be based, insubstantial degree, upon an element improper to be considered in determining damage arising from establishment of a highway. State v. Horman, 188M252, 247NW4. See Dun. Dig. 3745.

Court did not err in denying defendant's motion to strike out all evidence as to injury to plaintiff's kidney as a result of accident in question. Orth v. W., 190M193, 251NW127. See Dun. Dig. 2528.

19. Discovery.

In automobile collision case, court properly excluded notice served by plaintiffs upon defendant requiring him to state what information he had obtained at scene of accident. Dickinson v. L., 188M130, 246NW669. See Dun. Dig. 2735.

Where request of an autopsy in action on life policy was delayed until a few days before day set for trial, refusal to grant same cannot be held an abuse of discretion. Müller v. M., 198M497, 270NW559. See Dun. Dig. 4872(88).

20. Telephone conversations.

Use of transcripts of pamograph recorded conversations by court and counsel for their convenience while records reproduced conversations in court, transcriptions being identified as correct, but not introduced in evidence, was not prejudicial to defendant. State v. Raasch, 201M158, 275NW620. See Dun. Dig. 3245.

Part IV. Crimes, Criminal Procedure, Imprisonment and Prisons

General Provisions

9906. Crimes defined and classified.

1. Definition of "crime," "offense," "misdemeanor."

Where defendant was permitted but not induced to complete the offense charged, the defense of entrapment is not available. State v. McKenzie, 182M513, 235NW274. See Dun. Dig. 2448b.

A penal statute creating a new offense must plainly inform those upon whom it operates where line of duty is drawn and what law will do if it is overpassed. State v. Northwest Poultry & Egg Co., 203M438, 281NW753. See Dun. Dig. 2417a.

An uncontrollable and insane impulse to commit crime, in mind of one who is conscious of nature and quality of act, is not allowed to relieve a person of criminal liability. State v. Probate Court, 287NW297. See Dun. Dig. 2406.

4. Acts constituting different offenses.

Multiple consequences of a single criminal act. 21 MinnLawRev805.

9907. Meaning of words and terms.

Op. Atty. Gen., Jan. 11, 1930.

9908. Rules of construction.

The provisions of the game law are to be construed according to the fair import of their terms, viewed in the light of the purpose of the law. 177M483, 225NW430.

Where the Legislature declares an offense in terms so indefinite that they may embrace, not only acts commonly recognized as reprehensible, but also others which it is unreasonable to believe were intended to be made unlawful, the statute is void for uncertainty. State v. Parker, 183M588, 237NW409. See Dun. Dig. 8989.

Courts will favor conclusion that terms of a statute are reasonably certain if they are widely used in same sense in legislative enactment, and also language which has been a part of a statute for a long term of years. State v. Northwest Poultry & Egg Co., 203M438, 281NW753. See Dun. Dig. 2417.

Courts are obliged to sustain legislative enactments as reasonably certain when possible and will resort to all acceptable rules of construction to discover a competent and efficient expression of legislative will, but are not free to substitute amendment for construction and thereby supply omissions of legislature. Id. See Dun. Dig. 2417.

9909. Persons punishable.

Indians are not subject to state prosecution for crimes on Bois Fort Indian Reservation, but non-Indians are. Op. Atty. Gen. (494b-19), May 31, 1935.

9912. Duress—How constituted.

176M175, 222NW906.

9914. Intoxication or criminal propensity no defense.

1. Intoxication.

Defendant in homicide case held not so intoxicated as to make that a defense. State v. Norton, 194M410, 260NW502. See Dun. Dig. 2447.

9915. Criminal responsibility of insane persons.

Acts of cruel and inhuman treatment which result from a diseased mind are no cause for divorce. 171M253, 213NW906.

Statute directing district court not to try a person for crime while he is in state of insanity, imposes a duty on, but does not go to jurisdiction of, the court, and failure to comply with the statute is no ground for collateral attack, as by habeas corpus, on judgment of conviction. State v. Utecht, 203M448, 281NW775. See Dun. Dig. 2476a.

Fact that one is subject to epileptic fits does not exempt him from being tried for crime. Op. Atty. Gen., Jan. 16, 1933.

9916. Conviction of lesser crime, when.

Where entire course of trial not only indicates but compels conclusion that the only offense charged and involved at trial was that of sodomy, court did not err in refusing to submit to jury lesser offenses of indecent assault and assault in third degree. State v. Nelson, 199M86, 271NW114. See Dun. Dig. 544.

9917. Principal defined.

Owner of business maintaining sign over sidewalk was liable for punishment for maintaining sign in violation of ordinance, although the sign was installed by a sign hanger and though ordinance provided that no one unless a licensed sign hanger should install any sign and should obtain a permit before installing one. 176M151, 222NW639.

Evidence sustains a conviction of manslaughter in the second degree. State v. Stevens, 184M286, 238NW673. See Dun. Dig. 4241.
